Reading

Read Hamlet
pp 25–30

Chart Work

Add to the charts from the reading each week. Bring them to class for discussion. All charts will be turned in the final week of the study guide.

Omission Chart

Continue to note examples of omission and what the full words should be.

Character Chart

Continue to record the characters as you are introduced to them and their relationship to Prince Hamlet.

Literary Techniques & Elements

Continue to fill in how each term relates to Hamlet.

Plot Line Diagram

As you finish Hamlet fill in the empty blanks of the diagram.

Parent Discussion

Discuss the following with your students after they have completed the reading for the week but prior to having them begin the writing assignments.

1. Go through the excerpts from Hamlet in this week's reading and discuss the general idea of what each excerpt means. Why did the author choose to include these actual excerpts from Hamlet in this re-told version?

2. In Hamlet we see how sin separates families and communities. Discuss relationships in which sin caused separation. How does our sin affect our relationship with God?
3. Who are the fathers in the play? Who are all the sons? Why is this significant? Think of how each father is connected to each son. What is Shakespeare saying about fathers and sons? Is this a biblical worldview?
4. To what extent do parents have the right to "spy" or check up on their children? What circumstance might allow or prevent this?

Comprehension

Complete the following exercises and turn in.

1. Why does Hamlet cause Ophelia confusion? What is his purpose in doing this?
2. In our version we aren't told the name of the play; however, in the original text of Hamlet the play is called "Mouse Trap." Why is this a good name for the play? What other possible names could you think of?
3. What was the outcome of the theatrical performance?
4. Who hides behind the arras? Is this the first time this character hides to listen to someone else's conversation? What related vocabulary term did we learn from this act?
5. Why does Hamlet's mother believe he has offended his stepfather? And, in turn, why does Hamlet respond that his mother, "have my father much offended"?
6. Of all the characters we meet in Hamlet, who is left standing in the end? What are they left to do, and who has the final word?

Activities

1. We don't get to read the play from the troupe of players. The actual name of this performance in the original work of Hamlet is called "Mouse Trap." Write out this performance as you think the actors would have performed it. Remember to use language like Shakespeare would have! Will you keep the same title, or change it to a new one?
2. Memorize all or part of either Hamlet's speech or Ophelia's speech on page 25 and give a dramatic reading to the class.
