

Les cours de genres littéraires 2eme année

Approche de la question du genre

Nous n'appréhendons pas les textes littéraires comme des êtres singuliers, hors de toutes catégories. Un texte littéraire se présente à nous à travers certaines caractéristiques de genre, qui, on le verra, donnent forme à nos attentes, au type de réception que nous en avons et servent à en interpréter le sens. Nous avons besoin de savoir à quelle catégorie un texte appartient pour le comprendre tout à fait. Si je prends un conte de fées comme Barbe-bleue pour un témoignage historique, ou une satire ironique pour un essai sérieux, je risque fort de mésinterpréter le sens du texte que je lis.

Il suffit d'entrer dans une librairie pour faire l'expérience de la catégorisation littéraire. Sans avoir suivi de cours de méthodologie, les libraires classent en général les textes littéraires contemporains en différents rayons, tels que roman, poésie, théâtre. Il s'agit là d'un système des genres rudimentaire et dont on devine qu'il est assez approximatif. En fouillant dans le rayon roman on risque fort d'y trouver des récits non fictifs comme le témoignage de Robert Antelme sur les camps de la mort, L'Espèce humaine.

On a d'ailleurs souvent l'impression que ce classement est inopérant pour les textes modernes: où ranger, par exemple, Plume d'Henri Michaux, qui a été publié dans la collection Poésie/Gallimard mais qui comporte des narrations fictives comme celle qui donne son nom au recueil (Plume est en effet un personnage de fiction type)? Où ranger les textes de Samuel Beckett comme Malone meurt où l'action se réduit à rien et où une voix parle tout du long au présent dans ce qui pourrait aussi bien constituer un monologue théâtral? Est-ce qu'il faut en conclure que la littérature moderne est rebelle aux genres? Que c'est une question dépassée qui ne concerne que la littérature classique? Nous essaierons de répondre à ces questions.

1.1. Un genre est une convention discursive

Commençons par remarquer que si la notion de genre est floue, c'est qu'elle s'applique à des réalités littéraires très différentes, dont nous sentons qu'elles ne sont pas de même échelle.

Ainsi, on peut dire qu'un sonnet, qu'un roman d'apprentissage, ou que la poésie lyrique sont des genres. Mais évidemment on fait allusion dans ces différents cas à des propriétés textuelles très différentes.

Le sonnet est une forme fixe dont les caractéristiques métriques sont strictement codifiées. En revanche son contenu est assez indifférent à son genre. C'est exactement le contraire pour le roman d'apprentissage, qui ne constitue un genre que par son contenu vague (impliquant un héros ou une héroïne jeune et inexpérimentée qui fait l'expérience de l'existence sociale, affective ou esthétique, à travers un certain nombre d'épreuves (comme dans Les Illusions perdues de Balzac, ou L'Education sentimentale de Flaubert). Mais ces romans d'apprentissage peuvent être très différents par la longueur, par la forme, par le type de narration. Enfin, lorsqu'on parle de la poésie lyrique, on réfère en général à la fois à une forme d'énonciation à la première personne (critère qui n'apparaît pas du tout dans le sonnet ou le roman d'apprentissage) et à certains types de contenus (l'épanchement de la sensibilité).

Il y a cependant un point commun à tous ces usages du mot
