No Place Like Home Jerri Garretson, 2023-08-21 Jerri Garretson lived a total of 33 years in Manhattan Kansas in three periods This book features 55 topics about life in the years she was growing up there plus 13 mini biographies of teachers and neighbors that were important in her life It is illustrated with over 800 photos of people places and events and even everyday objects most of us no longer use To assist readers unfamiliar with Manhattan she has included maps and to anchor local events to the nation and the world there is a timeline The book is thoroughly indexed Though many dates and events are mentioned it is not a history of the city but rather an entertaining account about the way of life in that time and place Please be aware that this is a 298 page heavily illustrated book in the same fixed format as the printed book As such it is a download of about large download of approximately 227 MB and will take much longer to download than a novel in flowing format that has no illustrations

No Place Like Home Peter Mares, 2018-09-17 More than a million lower income households in Australia pay above the affordability benchmark for their housing costs More than 100 000 people are homeless Seventy per cent of us are concerned we ll never own property Yet owning a home is still seen by most Australians as an essential part of our way of life It is generally accepted that Australia is in the grip of a housing crisis But we are divided along class generational and political lines about what to do about it Award winning journalist Peter Mares draws on academic research statistical data and personal interviews to create a clear picture of Australia s housing problems and to offer practical solutions Expertly informed and eminently readable No Place Like Home cuts through the noise and asks the common sense questions about why we do housing the way we do and what the alternatives might be Peter Mares is an independent writer and researcher He is a contributing editor with the online magazine Inside Story a senior moderator with the Cranlana Programme and an adjunct fellow in the Centre for Urban Transitions at Swinburne University Peter was a broadcaster with the ABC for twenty five years serving as a foreign correspondent based in Hanoi and presenting national radio programs His 2016 book Not Quite Australian How Temporary Migration Is Changing the Nation was shortlisted in the NSW Premier s Literary Awards No Place Like Home doesn t just crunch numbers convincingly It shows us through the compelling stories of people affected by the housing crisis how the whole fabric of our society is threatened if we cannot fairly address this fundamental human need for shelter Age Measured and compassionate Mares writes simply and clearly about complex issues and policies and avoids the sensationalism and bombast with which they are frequently handled in the media Australian Peter Mares gives a lucid overview of Australia s housing crisis This book offers a timely discussion of an increasingly urgent and complex problem Accessible and sympathetic No Place Like Home should kick off some serious policy debates and will appeal to the general reader Books Publishing One of the most important books published in Australia in 2016 An impressive account of one of the biggest scandals in contemporary Australia how we ve sleepwalked into a policy environment that encourages the systemic exploitation of an underclass of millions of temporary migrants in our country Tim Watts on Not

Quite Australian Mares is indefatigable in his data gathering and scrupulously even handed in weighing the evidence He strikes an exquisite balance between the personal and scholarly the humane and tough mindedness Not Quite Australian is big picture storytelling with a pulse always keeping ideals blunt realities and people the exposed who want a place and the lucky ones entrenched here in the frame Australian on Not Quite Australian Compellingly readable Mares research is comprehensive intellectually deft ethically and philosophically grounded but digestible and personally attested This is on the ground people focused journalism of the highest kind Sydney Morning Herald on Not Quite Australian This detailed careful and topical book is illuminated by the personal stories of individuals and families caught up in a complex and bureaucratic system and it leaves a lasting impression of an Australia that is becoming a two tiered country Powerful and persuasive Overland on Not Quite Australian

There's No Place Like Home Gerri Irish,2004-09 Josie Cullen lives in a flat over her salon in Kent Una Byrne lives in an Edwardian terraced house in Dagenham London Pauline Harper lives in a new four bed roomed house in Toronto Maura Grant lives with her mother in law in Toronto Home for the four sisters is in Dublin where they grew up And where they had left their four brothers and two younger sisters with their parents when they emigrated The sisters are home for a party and it is the first time the family has been together for six years Because their daddy had died eighteen months earlier they anticipated there would be some changes but they were not expecting their mammy to be more difficult to understand than she had been before they had left

No Place Like Home Pen Farthing,2010-07-08 Nowzad was a gentle giant when it came to taking treats He never ever snatched To me it was just further evidence that deep inside there was a great dog struggling to find his way out When Pen Farthing brings stray dogs Nowzad and Tali back from his tour of Afghanistan little does he know what he has begun Suddenly he has four dogs to look after two of whom have never been house trained And soon he is inundated with requests from other Marines and soldiers to help bring their rescued dogs home Whether it s little Helmand Fubar or Beardog Pen does his utmost to give these dogs the chance they deserve No Place like Home is the true story of one man s courage and persistence as he struggles to give his dogs at home and those still in Afghanistan the best possible chance It will warm and break the hearts of dog lovers everywhere

No Place Like Home Sara W. Lindsey,2015-03-31 Katie Thomas had been living all alone for 5 years in the big city of Chicago after graduating from college She had become a self assured confident young woman after leaving trials and tragedies behind in her small hometown of Alton Indiana Her mother had pleaded with her to come home for an extended stay and she had finally decided to spend summer break there Even though she wanted to spend time with her mother she did not want to revisit the bitterness that she knew she would face when she returned to Alton Little did she know that her visit could quite possibly change her life forever During her time in Alton she would reconnect with God and the love of her life Would she be able to find it in her heart to forgive others and God Could she move beyond past tragedies and feel comfortable in Alton again

cows gathering eggs and butchering hogs and steers It meant raising a garden preparing meals from scratch sewing clothes and churning butter It meant living close to the earth It was a special time when children could wander the pastures and fields without fear and come home dirty after a day of hard play and harder work Farmers produced much of what they needed to live and were almost completely self sufficient Farm life was basic simple and sweet and family was the most important thing There s No Place Like Home is the story of a Kansas farm family It is the unique story of life in a different time and place before technology and automation changed how things are done on the farm It was a time when a farm life was a family project and everyone contributed A collection of anecdotes and oral histories this story includes the tales of a childhood on a Kansas farm in the mid 20th century and the joys and regrets for generations of such a life It is the story of a life on the Kansas prairie a celebration of the land and people of Kansas and a re telling of the histories of one family recounted around the kitchen table It tells of the struggles hopes and disappointments of life in a simpler time and place

No Place Like Home Suzanna Myatt Harvill,2021-10-29 Chrissy Landress and four of her friends are the victims of a buyout of their local telephone company in the small town of Chinquapin Fl They lost their jobs and are quickly running out of money They ve all moved into Chrissy s ancestral home Magnolia Hall The friends have their backs to the wall and must think outside the box extremely outside the box in order to survive They decide to open a high class gentlemen s club They must keep the operation of the brothel under the radar but even with all the clandestine machinations word spreads and the club prospers Everything is copacetic until a local VIP dies in the bordello The club workers must cover up the death of the guest by making his demise appear the result of a car accident Chrissy s boyfriend the local sheriff Hank Albritton has turned a blind eye to his lady love s business endeavor but he discovers the guest was murdered Where how and by whom is a mystery Could the killer be a member of the Magnolia Hall staff or another guest The killing attracts national attention to the plight of many American workers who lost their jobs during the Great Recession and the women and men of Magnolia Hall attain celebrity status but more scandals loom on the horizon for Chrissy and her friends No Place Like Home Stephen
