The Fox and the Stork

Once upon a time there were two friends, a fox and a stork. One day, the fox decided to have some fun with the stork, so he invited her for dinner to his house. "Thank you for your kind invitation," said the stork, "I will be very happy to come."

So that evening, the stork went to the fox's house, where the fox served a delicious soup in two flat plates. The fox said: "Here is some delicious soup made especially for you. I hope you enjoy it." It was very easy for the fox to eat and he ate all the soup very quickly. The poor stork, however, was very embarrassed and could not eat anything at all. She tried very hard but she could not drink the soup from the flat plate.

Quickly, the stork realized that the fox had deceived her. "I hope you liked your dinner," said the fox, laughing. The poor stork left the fox's house feeling very hungry and furious with the fox, so she decided to teach him a lesson.

The following day, the stork had an idea. She talked to the fox and told him: "I am very grateful for your invitation, dear friend. I would like to invite you to my house." So that evening the fox visited the stork's house for dinner. The clever stork served the food in a long-necked jar, and didn't give the fox any plates. The food was delicious soup. Now the stork found it easy to eat the delicious food with his long beak, but the poor fox was not able to eat any and went home hungry.
