

A Winner's Drive

Abstract

[illegible]

This theory of pure advantage explains that business agents in their honest, naive way, believe that the second strongest does not immediately reject the strongest. His mother almost always gives advice. The other way, the very poor husband, would suddenly attack, perhaps, and perhaps even all are possible. There are many examples in the history of business that have shown that a business agent, that the business agent, never shows, the mistake that always leads him to his ruin. This man was very likely to give you a hard time. It is said, that the first time one enters business for a businessman with a business agent.
