delightful collection of anecdotes that include recollections by his brothers and fascinating photographs Raymond shares true experiences from 1947 through 1956 that reveal what it was like to learn in a one room country school that included teachings not only at his desk but also outside the classroom His colorful stories detail many life lessons learned from eating possum grapes and green apples riding his horse to school sharing an outhouse with a seasonal black snake and a few black widow spiders listening to the same story about Dick and Jane and a dog named Spot overcoming a stuttering problem with help from a compassionate and determined teacher and committing a crime that caused him to spend an afternoon with his nose firmly planted within a ring drawn on the blackboard Uphill One Way shares a retired educator s childhood learning experiences that highlight the value of the one room country school and its impact on America and the public school system

Michigan. Department of Public Instruction,1910 Almost a Failure Joseph C. Martin,2011-12-29 For seventeen years I lived in Americas first housing projects Ive witnessed in full contrast the struggles of living in poverty the drugs and the everyday violence Statistics read that I would never see the year two thousand because of Black on black crime In the nineteen eighties throughout the mid nineties seven out of ten African American males were dying because of Black on Black crime My story is one that is rarely told or heard coming from the projects in the voice of a precarious child to a dysfunctional teenager and a spiritually broken young man As people we love to reminisce and we all have those memories that are forever burned into our mind Some memories make us feel emotional either happy or sad Then some people are witnesses to some things in life and those memories haunt them I m a witness and those memories are now a part of my testimony in a unique read titled Almost A Failure my life without Jesus Christ My proposed title Almost a Failure will take the reader inside my life and my family This book will give inspiration and spiritual motivation to the young adults teens and the adults from my generation and those who love to read real life testimonies I also discuss two controversial topics The hip hop industry and politics and religion my endeavors in the music business and how politics and religion affect the way we live in Black America The Ohio Teacher ,1914 Journal of Education ,1899 Northwestern Farmer ,1902 The Public School Program ,1926 Conversations with Kentucky Writers Linda Elisabeth LaPinta,2021-11-21 Kentucky and Kentuckians are full of stories which may be why so many present day writers have Kentucky roots Whether they left and returned like Wendell Berry and Bobbie Ann Mason or adopted Kentucky as home like James Still and Jim Wayne Miller or grew up and left for good like Michael Dorris and Barbara Kingsolver they have one connection Kentucky has influenced their writing and their lives L Elisabeth Beattie explores this influence in twenty intimate interviews Conversations with Kentucky Writers was more than three years in the making as Beattie traveled across the state and beyond to capture oral histories on tape Her exhaustive knowledge of these authors helped her draw out personal revelations about their work their lives and the nature of writing When Still concludes his interview with I believe I ve told you more than anybody he could be speaking for any of Beattie's subjects Aspiring writers will learn that Mason submitted twenty stories to the New Yorker before one was accepted and that Still wrote articles for Sunday school magazines There's plenty of advice Dorris tells budding authors to get real jobs keep journals and read everything even cereal boxes and Marsha Norman reminds playwrights that it is not the business of the theater to provide writers with a living Kingsolver advises Read good stuff and write bad stuff until eventually what you're writing begins to approximate what you're reading Beattie's collection includes striking self portraits of such writers as Sue Grafton Leon Driskell James Baker Hall Fenton Johnson George Ella Lyon Taylor McCafferty Ed McClanahan Sena Naslund Chris Offutt Lee Pennington and Betty Layman Receveur What most distinguishes these moving conversations from other author interviews is their focus on creativity on the teaching of writing and on the authors strong sense of place As Wade Hall writes in his foreword all twenty writers recognize that their works have been significantly influenced by their Kentucky experience This collection offers insights into Kentucky's rich and flowering literary heritage
