When Ed Goodwin moved with his parents to the Greenwood neighborhood in Tulsa Oklahoma his family joined a community soon to become the center of black life in the West But just a few years later on May 31 1921 the teenaged Ed hid in a bathtub as a white mob descended on his neighborhood laying waste to thirty five blocks and murdering as many as three hundred people in one of the worst acts of racist violence in U S history The Goodwins and their neighbors soon rebuilt the district into a Mecca in Ed s words where nightlife thrived and small businesses flourished Ed bought a newspaper to chronicle Greenwood s resurgence and battles against white bigotry and his son Jim an attorney embodied the family s hopes for the civil rights movement But by the 1970s urban renewal policies had nearly emptied the neighborhood Today the newspaper remains and Ed s granddaughter Regina represents the neighborhood in the Oklahoma state legislature working alongside a new generation of local activists to revive it once again In Built from the Fire journalist Victor Luckerson tells the true story behind a potent national symbol of success and solidarity and weaves an epic tale about a neighborhood that refused more than once to be erased
