demands of ever increasing rent and mounting bills forced her to fall behind and eviction soon followed Giselle and her kids were thrown into New York City's overburdened shelter system which housed nearly 60 000 people each day They soon found themselves living at a Sleep Inn in Queens provided by the city as temporary shelter for nearly a year all six lived in a single room with two beds and one bathroom With curfews and lack of amenities it felt more like a prison than a home and Giselle at the mercy of a broken system grew fearful about her family's future She knew that her daughters and the other girls living at the shelter needed to be a part of something where they didn't feel the shame or stigma of being homeless and could develop skills and a community they could be proud of Giselle had worked for the Girl Scouts and had the idea to establish a troop in the shelter and with the support of a group of dedicated parents advocates and remarkable girls Troop 6000 was born New York Times journalist Nikita Stewart settled in with Troop 6000 for more than a year at the peak of New York City's homelessness crisis in 2017 getting to know the girls and their families and witnessing both their triumphs and challenges In Troop 6000 readers will feel the highs and lows as some families make it out of the shelter while others falter and girls grow up with the stress and insecurity of not knowing what each day will bring and not having a place to call home living for the times when they can put on their Girl Scout uniforms and come together The result is a powerful inspiring story about overcoming the odds in the most unlikely of places Stewart shows how shared experiences of poverty and hardship sparked the political will needed to create the troop that would expand from one shelter to fifteen in New York City and ultimately inspired the creation of similar troops across the country Woven throughout the book is the history of the Girl Scouts an organization that has always adapted to fit the times supporting girls from all walks of life Troop 6000 is both the intimate story of one group of girls who find pride and community with one another and the larger story of how when we come together we can find support and commonality and experience joy and success no matter how challenging life may be

The Nation's Capital Brewmaster Mark Elliott Benbow, 2017-10-11 Christian Heurich 1842 1945 was not only Washington D C's most successful brewer he was the world's oldest with 90 years experience He walked across central Europe learning his craft survived a shipboard cholera epidemic recovered from malaria and worked as a roustabout on a Caribbean banana boat all by age 30 Heurich lived most of his life in Washington becoming its largest private landowner and opening the city's largest brewery He won a beer war against his rivals and his beers won medals at World's Fairs He was trapped in Europe while on vacation at the start of both World Wars once sleeping through an air raid and was accused of being a German spy plotting to assassinate Woodrow Wilson A notably odd episode when they began to tear down his old brewery to build the Kennedy Center the wrecking ball bounced off the walls Drawing on family papers and photos the author chronicles Heurich's life and the evolving beer industry before and after Prohibition Path Lit by Lightning David Maraniss, 2023-06-06 Jim Thorpe rose to world fame as a mythic talent who excelled at every sport Most famously he won gold medals in the decathlon and pentathlon at the 1912 Stockholm Olympics A member of the Sac and Fox Nation he was an All American football player at the Carlisle Indian School the star of the first class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame and played major league baseball for John McGraw's New York Giants Even in a golden age of sports celebrities he was one of a kind But despite his awesome talent Thorpe's life was a struggle against the odds At Carlisle he faced the racist assimilationist philosophy Kill the Indian Save the Man His gold medals were unfairly rescinded because he had played minor league baseball and his supposed allies turned away from him when their own reputations were at risk His later life was troubled by alcohol broken marriages and financial distress He roamed from state to state and took bit parts in Hollywood but even the film of his own life failed to improve his fortunes But for all his travails Thorpe survived determined to shape his own destiny his perseverance becoming another mark of his mythic stature Publisher's description Weekly Weather and Crop Bulletin, 1982 Returning the Gift Rebecca Colesworthy, 2018 What is a gift What do gifts mean and do Drawing on Marcel Mauss's 1925 essay this volume studies novels autobiographical texts aesthetic treatises and political writings by Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys Gertrude Stein and H D to explore the idea of the gift in Modernist literature Arthropod Management and Landscape Considerations in Large-Scale Agroecosystems Michael J. Brewer, Gary L. Hein, 2024-08-16 For large scale agroecosystems patterns of pest population increases graded increases or abrupt outbreaks and declines graded suppression or abrupt crashes vary considerably and are influenced by factors within crop fields and across broader landscape scales Better understanding of pest population dynamics and the implications of spatial interactions on the function and development of pest management approaches are the main themes of this important book The book builds from a 60 year history of field based pest management by focusing on the drivers of pest management in large scale agroecosystems and the landscape scale processes that affect these drivers and contribute to variation in pest outbreaks and suppression These drivers include abiotic and biotic influences such as weather spatial composition and arrangement of landscape elements and widely applied managed inputs such as planting and crop rotation schedules crop varietal selection and land and soil conservation efforts The book introduces general concepts opportunities and challenges of arthropod management in large scale agroecosystems The book is essential reading for researchers in applied entomology and ecology and for pest management practitioners
