

Below is a condensed student-written office memorandum that demonstrates how citations will look in a document. Because underlining is an acceptable way to denote italics, and some law professors require students to underline citations, that typeface has been used throughout this memo. Italics would also be acceptable.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Kelly Foster
FROM: Jeffrey P. Rosato
DATE: October 25, 1999
RE: Julia Bergan: Analysis of Credible Threat Element of the Colorado Harassment by Stalking Statute (our file 99/1278)

---

Issue

Under the Colorado harassment by stalking statute, did Patrick Bergan make a credible threat with the intent to annoy, harass, or alarm his estranged wife, Julia Bergan, when she received faxes originating from his place of business that contained statements such as "Do you think anyone would notice if you disappeared?"

Brief Answer

Yes. Patrick Bergan did make a credible threat against Julia Bergan. Mrs. Bergan received a fax that originated from her ex-husband's workplace; it was signed with the initial "P," the same as Mr. Bergan's first initial; and the fax alluded to her possible disappearance. This fax, combined with the fact that others spotted his car outside her new residence, would be sufficient to meet the "credible threat" prong of the Colorado harassment statute.

Facts

Our client, Julia Bergan, has accused her estranged husband, Patrick Bergan, of stalking her. On August 24, 1999, Julia and Patrick Bergan were legally separated pending a

Wallace,2024-12-02 Cultural Sensitivity and Responsiveness in Neurorehabilitation A Personalized Approach for Speech Language Pathologists is a groundbreaking and transformative resource for designing quality and equitable neurorehabilitation care for individuals from diverse communities. Material coverage is comprehensive and chapters are user friendly for speech language pathologists SLP and SLP students alike. Case presentations are provided to demonstrate best practices. As our world becomes increasingly more diverse it is imperative for SLPs to be knowledgeable about and experienced with foundational information relating to diversity equity inclusion implicit bias intersectionality and SLP best practices for cases from culturally and linguistically diverse communities. The text culminates with an insightful epilogue featuring people from diverse communities from around the world who have neurogenic communication cognitive and swallowing disorders and who share information about what they would like neurorehabilitation specialists to know. The book is organized into seven sections. Part I Introduction to Personalized Care sets the stage by introducing the concept of multicultural neurogenetics and personalized care. Chapters delve into topics like implicit bias interprofessional collaboration and the tools clinicians need for effective case management when working with diverse populations. Part II Building a Foundation for Neurorehabilitation in a Multicultural World Personalization Personified provides practical guidance for SLPs. It covers the preparation for case contact working with interpreters and translators and the assessment and management of speech language cognitive and swallowing issues in culturally and linguistically diverse populations. Part III Specialty Neurogenetics Chapters offers in depth knowledge on various neurogenic conditions such as aphasia traumatic brain injury right hemisphere brain damage the dementias dysarthrias and dysphagia within a cultural context. Part IV A Sampling of Information About U S Census Bureau Racial Ethnic Groups delves into the unique cultural and communication factors related to various racial and ethnic groups in the United States including Blacks Hispanics Chinese and Asian Americans American Indians and Alaska Natives and White Americans. Part V Intersectionality examines the intersection of factors that create unique challenges in care including ethical perspectives for serving LGBTQIA individuals trauma informed care for marginalized populations and the cultural aspects of care for the Deaf community. Part VI Contributions from Educators and a Look at Neurorehabilitation Care Trends within the U S provides insights from academics on diversity equity and inclusion in education designing courses that promote DEI and current trends in SLP neurorehabilitation. Part VII presents real world cases with accompanying videos illustrating best practices in SLP neurorehabilitation care for diverse communities. These cases cover a wide range of scenarios from collaboration between medical SLPs and interpreters to culturally adapted therapy for older adults and complex management considerations for stroke survivors from the Deaf community. This section ends with a chapter by visionaries from Asia Africa Europe Oceania South America and North America sharing their insights on bridging the international diversity sensitivity and responsiveness gap emphasizing the importance of cultural competence in a global context. Key Features Comprised of 40 chapters by 80 renowned authors and over 100 total contributors from diverse communities including experienced SLP clinicians academicians and researchers diversity equity and inclusion DEI specialists and professionals from the areas of audiology medicine psychology and education Includes real world case studies including accompanying videos to illustrate best practices in SLP neurorehabilitation care for people from diverse communities Discusses diversity matters for people with major neurologically based communication cognitive and swallowing disorders and by race ethnicity and culture with attention to intersectionality Features content designed specifically for this book including considerations for individuals with neurogenic disorders who are from the Deaf community trauma informed care for the unsheltered and people who have experienced interpartner violence as well as intersectionality issues Incorporates perspectives about the value of non traditional approaches to supplement SLP treatment health literacy and public health partnerships Provides information by international SLPs about DEI issues that matter most in their respective countries and features thoughts about future neurorehabilitation directions Includes interviews with people who have neurogenic communication cognitive and swallowing disorders from culturally and linguistically diverse communities in the United States and abroad providing insights into what matters most and how to best achieve personalization of neurorehabilitation care from their perspective Laughing at
