to be struggling in the face of increasing demands for achievement and success It critically examines our understanding of this so called achievement generation questioning whether today s youth are really worse off than previous generations and how we have come to believe that this is so The author s wide ranging investigation draws on a large body of research as well as considering socio political historical and regional factors that might be affecting the resilience and mental health among young people It also provides original psycholinguistic studies of popular media concepts associated with these issues including the achievement generation pathological perfection and the good girl syndrome Deconstructing Scandinavia s Achievement Generation presents an engaging contribution to key debates around therapeutic culture and society in the 21st century It will appeal to students and scholars of critical and social psychology sociology anthropology philosophy as well as to those working in education social work and mental health Weekly Globe ,1842 History Anna

Greenwood,2023-10-06 History has been a source of cultural fascination since ancient times however little attention has been paid to its potential as a positive force for health and wellbeing at least until now Presenting the benefits of historical engagement and practical tips for making the most of it Anna Greenwood considers the power this discipline has to spur better health outcomes A ground breaking work for history buffs and healthcare providers alike this new instalment in the Arts for Health series by one of the leading scholars in modern health history advocates for history s ability to deepen sympathies broaden imaginations and create community beyond the customary restrictions of time and geography

Teaching the Arts in the Primary Curriculum Susan Ogier,Suzy Tutchell,2021-05-12 Learning in the arts does not fit in with simple conventional methodologies for teaching and assessing in the traditional sense but it has an immense power to transform children s understanding of the world around them and their lives Many jobs currently and of the future will demand the skills that learning in the arts will develop This book brings Arts Education sharply into focus as a meaningful learning experience for children of pre school and primary age 3 11 years It reinforces the potential for the wide range of physical mental and emotional development through learning opportunities that engagement in arts practice facilitates Provides insight into how teachers can support children to consider contemporary challenges that face their generation Includes expert voices from the world of education to demonstrate an expansive and perhaps surprising view of where and how the Arts can be found Shows how we can bring the arts so easily into our curriculum and into our classrooms On the Lam Jerry Clark,Ed Palattella,2019-09-17 Fugitives occupy a unique place in the American criminal justice system They can run and they can hide but eventually each chase ends And in many cases history is made along the way John Dillinger s capture obsessed J Edgar Hoover and helped create the modern FBI Violent student radicals who went on the lam in the 1960s reflected the turbulence of the era The sixteen year disappearance and sudden arrest of gangster James Whitey Bulger in 2011 captivated the nation Fugitives have become iconic characters in American culture even as they have threatened public safety and the smooth operation of the justice system They are always on the run always trying to stay out of reach of the long arm of the law Also prominent are the men and women who chase fugitives FBI agents federal marshals and their deputies police officers and bounty hunters A significant element of the justice system is dedicated to finding those on the run and the most wanted posters and true crime television shows have made fugitives seemingly ubiquitous figures of fear and fascination for the public In On the Lam Jerry Clark and Ed Palattella trace the history of fugitives in the United States by looking at the characters real and fictional who have played the roles of the hunter and the hunted They also examine the origins of the bail system and other legal tools such as most wanted programs that are designed to guard against flight

The Railway Times ... ,1857 Cut, Paste and Surf! Helen Orme,2002 This text provides an innovative range of ICT activities for KS3 English allowing students of all abilities to learn more English through this exciting medium whilst developing their ICT skills The interactive activities and English resources on the CD ROM can be networked for whole class teaching or individual student use Extensive teacher notes introduce the activities Learning outcomes can be assessed from integral student assessment forms that can be saved as Word files on your school network or individual computer Easy to set up and easy to use Cut Paste and Surf is a straightforward solution to integrating ICT into KS3 English The Politics and Aesthetics of Entrepreneurship Daniel Hjorth,Chris Steyaert,2010-01-01 Stylish bold fiery and full of zest this book could well have been called Embodying Entrepreneurship for perhaps the first time we have a cultured scholarly in the flesh treatment of entrepreneurial life Ranging from striptease to de Sade the aboriginal to Christo and the grotesque to the sublime The Politics and Aesthetics of Entrepreneurship is a tantalizing and critically refreshing work throughout This one could easily become the bad boy book of entrepreneurial studies given how strongly it challenges slaps existing entrepreneurship studies Daved Barry Universidade Nova de Lisboa Portugal Daniel Hjorth and Chris Steyaert make a unique contribution to management education Their ability to illustrate complex ideas through theatre and visual media is outstanding and much appreciated by a wide audience This book is no exception Their insights into the nature of entrepreneurship are fresh and original Their style of presentation is both rich and rewarding This is a book to surprise you and it will Heather H pfl University of Essex UK the four books comprising the series would certainly be a valuable addition to any entrepreneurship library However each book also stands alone as an individual purchase Lorraine Warren International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behaviour and Research This fourth book in the New Movements in Entrepreneurship series focuses on the politics and aesthetics of entrepreneurial processes in order to shed light on entrepreneurial creation itself Presenting original empirical material the eminent contributors examine control and entrepreneurship in various organizational contexts They go on to demonstrate how control can be exercised entrepreneurially how art brings an entrepreneurial force into society and how entrepreneurship operates by aesthetic moves The need to move beyond the traditional focus on the economic and business implications of entrepreneurship is also discussed as is the relevance of political and aesthetic theory to our understanding of entrepreneurship as a creative force

The book provides entrepreneurship studies with a new language that in itself is an aesthetic effort with political implications resulting in new theoretical empirical and practical possibilities It will prove a fascinating read for students academics and researchers with an interest in entrepreneurship and management and creativity and aesthetics
