Embalmer's Recipe Book Ann Lingard, 2015-02-11 People flowers memories how do we preserve the past Set in the Lake District the shifting mosaic of the narrative explores life, love, and prejudice through three very different women: Ruth, a taxidermist; Madeleine, a widowed sheep farmer; and Lisa, a mathematician. As Lisa is drawn into the group, it becomes clear that the other women have strange secrets. Ruth's blogs have an increasingly dark undertone, but these stark themes are offset by the warmth and humour of the rural community to which the women are bound. A charming, intelligent, and engrossing book with enough dark heart to drag it away from the domain of standard female fiction fare and into much more engaging territory. I found myself drawn in by the delicate prose and fascinating descriptions: an engrossing and enjoyable read.

Kat Arney A powerful and haunting story. An exhilarating and compelling read.

Professor Sir John Sulston Nobel Laureate An intriguing novel in a haunting setting, rich in texture, humorous, and concerned, raising important questions about science and our relation to the natural world, to the individuals we know, and to the communities we live in.

A lovely book.

Jenny Uglow A rich, absorbing, intriguing novel. All of the characters felt like real people whom I would want to know.

an absorbing, clever writer.
