nace siempre de las condiciones materiales de una sociedad pero al mismo tiempo constituye la expresión cultural más elevada de la espiritualidad humana. Otros seres animales son capaces de comunicar mensajes sobre la realidad a veces incluso sofisticados por diferentes medios pero el ser humano es el único animal de la biosfera que ha convertido en un arte la comunicación verbal de mensajes ficticios. Cuando los romanos distinguieron tres funciones principales para la literatura: instruir, deleitar y conmover, acertaron pero al mismo tiempo se quedaron cortos.

Together We Can Khushboo Mishra, 2022-04-22. Together We Can has been born out of the hard work and dedication of 32 supremely talented writers who have put their heart and soul into making this journey a reality and giving Together We Can shape and life. This Anthology celebrates the uniqueness and originality of all the writers who have come together to be a vital part of this wonderful ride. Together We Can is a conglomeration of short stories, essays, travel stories, poems and articles that come straight from the writers' hearts. Love for writing has united us and brought us together in our efforts and this book stands as a testimony to that. This Anthology is dedicated to all those people who don't need a reason to write; they just love writing and find solace in it.

Diaspora Poetics and Homing in South Asian Women's Writing Shilpa Daithota Bhat, 2018-03-14. This anthology of essays deliberates chiefly on the notion of locating home through the lens of the mythical idea of Trishanku, implying in-between space and homing in diaspora women's narratives associated with the South Asian region. The idea of in-between space has been used differently in various cultures but gestures prominently on the connotation of hanging between worlds. Historically, imperialism and the indentured labour system triggered dispersal of labourers to the various colonies of the British. Of course, this was not the only cause of international migratory processes. The partition of India and Pakistan led to large-scale migration. There was Punjabi migration to Canada. Several Indians, particularly the Gujaratis, travelled to Africa for business reasons. South Indians travelled to the Gulf for employment. There were migrations to East Asian countries under the kangani system. Again, these were not the only reasons. The process of demographic movement from South Asia has been complex due to innumerable push-pull factors. The subsequent generations of migrants included the twice-thrice and likewise displaced members of the diaspora. Racial denigration and Orientalist perceptions plagued their lives. They belonged to various ethnicities and races, inhabited marginalized spaces and strived to acculturate in the host society. Complete cultural assimilation was not possible, creating layered and hyphenated identities. These intricate social processes resulted in amalgamation and cross-pollination of cultures, inter-racial relationships and hybridization in all terrains of culture: language, music, fashion, cuisine, and so on. Situated in this matrix was the notion of Home, a special personal space which an individual could feel as belonging to very strongly. Nostalgia, loss of home, culture shock and interracial encounters problematized this discernment of belongingness and home These multifarious themes have been captured by women writers from the South Asian region and this book looks at the various aspects related to negotiating home in their narratives Diaspora Poetics in South Asian English Writings Eeshan Ali,Md. Rakibul Islam,2019-09-12 This volume brings together various discussions on various South Asian Diaspora writers of diverse sociopolitical backgrounds It provides perspectives drawn from border studies philosophical studies and regional issues of South Asia Before We Visit the Goddess Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni,2017-04-25 A new novel from the author of Oleander Girl a novel in stories built around crucial moments in the lives of 3 generations of women in an Indian Indian American Family Book of Creation Ran Lahav,2017-07-17 Waves of accidents suddenly plague our world Only the ancient society of Keepers understands that the Blessing is dwindling and life is in peril These men and women live secretly among us are descendants of the Biblical Patriarchs who were told Through you all the people of the earth shall be blessed Will they be able to restore the Blessing to the earth and prevent the approaching doom This fast pace breathtaking modern fantasy spans four millennia of human history from Biblical times to the 21st century and crisscrosses the world between New York Jerusalem Switzerland Algeria and the entire world The Tiniest House of Time Sreedhevi Iyer,2020-02-01 The Tiniest House of Time is more than a family saga ranging across continents and decades seamlessly from colonial Burma in the 1930s to nationalist Malaysia in the 1990s and beyond to Hong Kong and Australia The reader is thrust into the lives of far flung middle class Indian communities immersed in family and local politics and intimate relationships swept along in the tide of grand historical events History works in cycles repeating itself until we finally understand that everything that has happened has always already happened The story is driven by Iyer s two main characters both strong women Susheela Sastri and Sandhya Sastri who are grandmother and granddaughter but could have been born of the same atom Sandhya visits her grandmother s deathbed after having run away from her country her family her love and herself She remembers her grandmother s stories of a lost time in Burma and digs deep to find truth in it A dying Susheela impatient with her family s pity asks Sandhya to read to her It opens up past events in both their lives the family dynamics the forbidden loves the politics of who can be hated when and by whom And what can they as women of their times actually do about it Narratives of fear and safety Kaisa Kaukiainen,Kaisa Kurikka,Hanna Mäkelä,Elise Nykänen,Sanna Nyqvist,Juha Raipola,Anne Riippa,Hanna Samola,2020-09-01 The essays in this edited volume written in English and French tackle the intriguing problems of fear and safety by analysing their various meanings and manifestations in literature and other narrative media The articles bring forth new cross cultural interpretations on fear and safety through examining what kinds of genre specific means of world making narratives use to express these two affectivities The articles also show how important it is to study these themes in order to understand challenges in times of global threats such as the climate crisis The main themes of the book are approached from various theoretical perspectives as related to their literary and cultural representations Recent trends in research such as affect and risk theory serve as the basis for the discussion

The articles in the volume also draw from disciplines such as gender studies and trauma studies to examine the threats posed by collective fears and aggression on individuals lives and propose ways of coping with fear These themes are addressed also in articles analysing new adaptations of old myths that retell stories of the past Many of the articles in the volume discuss apocalyptic and dystopian narratives that currently permeate the entire cultural landscape Dystopian narratives do not only deal with future threats such as totalitarianism technocracy or environmental disasters but also suggest alternative ways of being and new hopes in the form of political resistance

Transcultural Negotiations of Gender Saugata

Bhaduri,Indrani Mukherjee,2015-09-18 Transcultural Negotiations of Gender probes into how gender is negotiated along the two axes of belonging and longing the twin desires of being located within a cultural milieu while yearning for either what has passed by or what is yet to come It also probes into the category of transculturality itself by examining how not only does it pertain to the coming together of cultures from diverse spatial locations but how shifts over time and changing performative modes and technological means of articulation within what may be presumed to be the same culture can also lead to the transcultural The volume comprises four sections Part I Be longing in Time examines negotiation of gender through transcultural acts of myths rituals and religious practices being revised and revisited over time Part II Be longing in Space studies how gender is renegotiated when people from different spaces interact as also when public spaces and domains themselves become sites of such negotiations In Part III Performing Be longing such transcultural negotiations are located in the context of changing modes of performance considering particularly that gender itself is performative The final section Modernity Technology and Be longing traces how gender becomes transculturally negotiated in a space like India with the advent of modernity and its companion technology
