Hildy Good is a townie. A lifelong resident of a small community on the rocky coast of Boston's North Shore she knows pretty much everything about everyone. And she's good at lots of things too. A successful real estate broker mother and grandmother her days are full. But her nights have become lonely ever since her daughters convinced their mother was drinking too much sent her off to rehab. Now she's in recovery more or less. Alone and feeling unjustly persecuted Hildy finds a friend in Rebecca McAllister one of the town's wealthy newcomers. Rebecca is grateful for the friendship and Hildy feels like a person of the world again as she and Rebecca escape their worries with some harmless gossip and a bottle of wine by the fire just one of their secrets. But Rebecca is herself the subject of town gossip. When Frank Getchell an old friend who shares a complicated history with Hildy tries to warn her away from Rebecca Hildy attempts to protect her friend from a potential scandal. Soon however Hildy is busy trying to protect her own reputation. When a cluster of secrets becomes dangerously entwined the reckless behavior of
