Urban Development in the Muslim World Hooshang Amirahmadi,2017-09-08 First Published in 2017 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an Informa company

Environment and the City Joe Ravetz,Clive George,Joe Howe,2004-07-15 For the first time at the beginning of the twenty first century urban dwellers outnumber rural residents and this trend is set to continue Consequently one of the most pressing issues of our time is how to square the social and economic development of cities with their environmental limits and those of the wider environment The theme of the environment and city is topical at every level from the politics of global trade to local community networks Environment and the City looks at the evolution of cities in the developed and the developing world and the implications for resource consumption and environmental impacts. It takes a cross cutting approach with new thinking on multiple geographies, the configuration of networks, exclusion, consumption, risk and ecological footprint. Urban environmental themes and their related social, economic and political agendas are outlined. In turn, the environmental impacts and environmental agendas relating to key sectors of the urban economy are discussed. The global context to such issues is then explored before the practical tools and methods of urban environmental management are investigated. The theme of the sustainable city emerges from this not so much as a standard menu but as a learning process between all sections of society. This book, a valuable resource, provides a concise, accessible route map for all students interested in the environmental issues emanating from our urban society. Written to aid student understanding, the easily navigable text features boxed practical examples, discussion points, signposts to reading and websites and a glossary.

City Requiem, Calcutta Ananya Roy, 2003. Housing developments emerge amid the paddy fields on the fringes of Calcutta; overflowing trains carry peasant women to informal urban labor markets in a daily commute against hunger; land is settled and claimed in a complex choreography of squatting and evictions. Such, Ananya Roy contends, are the distinctive spaces of a communism for the new millennium where, at a moment of liberalization, the hegemony of poverty is quietly reproduced. An ethnography of urban development in Calcutta, Roy's book explores the dynamics of class and gender in the persistence of poverty. City Requiem, Calcutta emphasizes how gender itself is spatialized and how gender relations are negotiated within the geopolitics of modernity and through the everyday practices of territory. Thus, Roy shows how urban developmentalism in its populist guise reproduces the relations of masculinist patronage and in its entrepreneurial guise seeks to reclaim a bourgeois Calcutta gentlemanly in its nostalgias. In doing so, her work expands the field of poverty studies by showing how a politics of poverty is also a poverty of knowledge, a construction and management of social and spatial categories.

Urban Problems (Routledge Revivals) Michael Pacione, 2014-06-03. Urban problems and their resolution represent one of the major challenges for planners and decision makers in the modern world. This book, first published in 1990, makes a major contribution to the field, presenting an international and interdisciplinary approach to the challenges presented by the urban environment. The coverage is comprehensive, ranging from the economic and political dimensions of the capitalist system to the issues of poverty and deprivation and questions about housing equity. This is an essential reference guide to social, economic and environmental problems in urban areas, which is of great value to students of planning, urban studies, geography and sociology.

Revival of a City Jason Begley, Tom Donnelly, David Jarvis, Paul Sissons, 2019-07-26. In 2021, Coventry celebrates being the national City of Culture. Modern Coventry is a product of successive rounds of industrial, economic and social developments driven by regional, national and global forces. This book presents a timely opportunity to reflect on this rich and often misunderstood history. The book examines the development of industry, services, infrastructure and social transformation and the role which globalising forces have played in influencing these particularly since the 1950s It looks at the experiences of the city of Coventry in responding to the challenges of socioeconomic change technological advances reconstruction and renewal Issues of investment economic decline reconstruction employment change and local and national governance are all considered in assessing the story of modern Coventry a city influenced by new industries and development opportunities while still being shaped by its historical economic challenges By focusing on the case of Coventry this book contributes to debates surrounding urban structural change economic diversification and resilience from the perspective of a medium sized city      Urban Vulnerability and Climate Change in Africa Stephan Pauleit,Adrien Coly,Sandra Fohlmeister,Paolo Gasparini,Gertrud Jørgensen,Sigrun Kabisch,Wilbard J. Kombe,Sarah Lindley,Ingo Simonis,Kumelachew Yeshitela,2015-04-13 Urbanisation and climate change are among the major challenges for sustainable development in Africa The overall aim of this book is to present innovative approaches to vulnerability analysis and for enhancing the resilience of African cities against climate change induced risks Locally adapted IPCC climate change scenarios which also consider possible changes in urban population have been developed Innovative strategies to land use and spatial planning are proposed that seek synergies between the adaptation to climate change and the need to solve social problems Furthermore the book explores the role of governance in successfully coping with climate induced risks in urban areas The book is unique in that it combines a top down perspective of climate change modeling with a bottom up perspective of vulnerability assessment quantitative approaches from engineering sciences and qualitative approaches of the social sciences a novel multi risk modeling methodology and strategic approaches to urban and green infrastructure planning with neighborhood perspectives of adaptation      Towards greener urbanization: Resource environmental effects and sustainable land use Guanghui Jiang,Yanbo Qu,Wenqiu Ma,Dingyang Zhou,2023-04-11 Calcutta Requiem: Gender And The Politics Of Poverty Ananya Roy,2007-09
