Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on House Administration United States. Congress. House. Committee on House Administration,1965 Detailed Statement of Disbursements, January 1 to June 30, 1965
United States. Congress. House. House Administration,1965 Rich Get Richer and the Poor Get Prison, The (Subscription)
Jeffrey Reiman,Paul Leighton,2015-07-14 Illustrates the issue of economic inequality within the American justice system The best selling text The Rich Get Richer and the Poor Get Prison contends that the criminal justice system is biased against the poor from start to finish The authors argue that even before the process of arrest trial and sentencing the system is biased against the poor in what it chooses to treat as crime The authors show that numerous acts of the well off such as their refusal to make workplaces safe refusal to curtail deadly pollution promotion of unnecessary surgery and prescriptions for unnecessary drugs cause as much harm as the acts of the poor that are treated as crimes However the dangerous acts of the well off are almost never treated as crimes and when they are they are almost never treated as severely as the crimes of the poor Not only does the criminal justice system fail to protect against the harmful acts of well off people it also fails to remedy the causes of crime such as poverty This results in a large population of poor criminals in our prisons and in our media The authors contend that the idea of crime as a work of the poor serves the interests of the rich and powerful while conveying a misleading notion that the real threat to Americans comes from the bottom of society rather than the top Learning Goals Upon completing this book readers will be able to Examine the criminal justice system through the lens of the poor Understand that much of what goes on in the criminal justice system violates one s own sense of fairness Morally evaluate the criminal justice system s failures Identify the type of legislature that is biased against the poor Statement of Disbursements of the House United States.
