Role Compatibility as Socialization Dorothee Vandamme,2022-03-10 In Role Compatibility as Socialization Dorothee Vandamme examines Pakistan s socialization process in terms of role compatibility in the 2008 2018 period Adopting an Interpretative phenomenological analysis IPA method of analysis Vandamme builds on role theory to develop a theory of socialization as role compatibility to explain the dynamics of Pakistan s dys functioning position and its status seeking process as a fully functioning member of the international system Specifically she focuses on how

Pakistani civilian and military leaders define their country s positioning towards India the United States and China In doing so she traces the link between domestic role contestation at the country s inception and the resulting domination of the military s conception of their country state identity how it projects itself externally and how it is received by others Departing from strictly structural or agent oriented explanations Vandamme expertly demonstrates Pakistan s perceived role compatibility with significant others and underlines the causality between state identity foreign policy behavior and socialization Role Compatibility as Socialization will be of interest to graduate students and researchers who work on and
