annual Bread Loaf Writers conference he was the friend and sometime antagonist of other important writers particularly Saul Bellow William Gass Howard Nemerov and Robert Coover Despite failed attempts to bridge the gap from his academic post to wide popular success Elkin continued to write essays stories and novels that garnered unerring praise His was a classic dilemma of an intellectual aesthete loath to make use of the common devices of popular appeal The book details the ambition the success the friction and the foibles of a writer who won fame but not the fame he wanted Thomas Register ,2004
