Old Friend From Far Away How To Write Memoir:

Old Friend from Far Away Natalie Goldberg, 2009-03-10 In her first book to focus solely on writing since her classic work Writing Down the Bones Goldberg reaffirms her status as one of the foremost teachers by redefining the practice of writing memoir

Transdisciplinary Feminist Research Carol Taylor, Jasmine Ulmer, Christina Hughes, 2020-05-17 What is feminist transdisciplinary research Why is it important How do we do it Through 19 contributions from leading international feminist scholars this book provides new insights into activating transdisciplinary feminist theories methods and practices in original creative and exciting ways ways that make a difference both to what research is and does and to what counts as knowledge The contributors draw on their own original research and engage an impressive array of contemporary theorising including new materialism decolonialism critical disability studies historical analyses Black Indigenous and Latina Feminisms queer feminisms Womanist Methodologies trans studies arts based research philosophy spirituality science studies and sports studies to trouble traditional conceptions of research method and praxis The authors show how working beyond disciplinary boundaries and integrating insights from different disciplines to produce new knowledge can prompt important new transdisciplinarity thinking and activism in relation to ongoing feminist concerns about knowledge power and gender In doing so the book attends to the multiple lineages of feminist theory and practice and seeks to bring these historical differences and intersections into play with current changes challenges and opportunities in feminism The book's practically grounded examples and wide ranging theoretical orbit are likely to make it an invaluable resource for established scholars and emerging researchers in the social sciences arts humanities education and beyond

Goodbye Goliath, One Man's Journey to Sobriety Clemon Hodge, 2018-02-16 Goodbye Goliath is the story of one man's journey to sobriety This is the second memoir by Clemon Hodge and is the continuation of his first book Dogpatch A Place I Remember

The Box in the Closet Margaret Singleton, 2011-09 This powerful and unusual story contrasts The Bicknells a wealthy and influential family in Rosedale Toronto Ontario into which I was born out of wedlock with a farm couple from near Brockville Ontario who adopted me in 1935 At the age of sixteen I began to feel unsettled and lost Eighteen years later I finally acted on that feeling and began the search for my lost parents Using documents I found in a box in the closet of my adoptive mother after her death I have retrieved the moment when a sleek limousine emerged from the dust of a gravel road delivering me to my new parents The book follows that limousine back as I searched for my birth mother taking me into mystery intrigue and cover up by the legal system but bringing me finally to a supper dance in the Crystal Ballroom of the historic King Edward Hotel in Toronto where by chance my birth parents were reunited The memoir is a story of loss and recovery but it is also a story of love strength and redemption

The Pain Mothers Must Never Expose: Michelann Parr, 2024-07-04 In this collection contributors reject the narrative that suggests that the pain of mothers must never be exposed They allow their pain to wander outside the frame of the requisite pathos individual pieces reveal pain to be a complex and intersectional practice that encompasses denial and disenfranchisement where pain is birthed and named disorientation leading to a search for stable ground destabilization that inspires non normative mothering and discovery as an active stance that transforms intergenerational pain As contributors take up the challenge of unravelling their stories they reach for a life sustaining and hopeful shift in consciousness that allows them to listen to what pain has to offer without judgment to imagine and create a different future for themselves their children and the world and to let go of maternal pain and suffering as a way of being Readers will be inspired by raw honesty authenticity and willingness to embrace story as a gift to self Coming to Our Senses Viki McCabe,2014-05 This book challenges the theory that our perceptions are unreliable shows that information reflects the structural organization of the complex systems that constitute our world and documents that the theories we construct detach us from reality and lead us astray Language Awareness with 2020 APA and 2021 MLA Updates Paul Eschholz,Alfred Rosa,Virginia Clark,2021-09-21 This ebook has been updated to provide you with the latest guidance on documenting sources in MLA style and follows the guidelines set forth in the MLA Handbook 9th edition April 2021 Explore the pervasive influence of language on our lives while becoming a better academic writer with Language Awareness

Language Awareness Paul Eschholz,Alfred Rosa,Virginia Clark,2019-08-15 Language Awareness helps students understand that writing makes things happen in the world This collection teaches students how language operates and how it evolves over time and this understanding in turn helps students use language more effectively in their own writing The supportive apparatus includes unique Language in Action activities which connect the everyday and the academic by examining current language related debates that deepen students understanding of each reading This beloved reader has stood the test of time and has been revised with feedback from instructors across the country The new edition features a blend of classic and contemporary readings that examine a wide range of topics through the lens of language New readings include a range of perspectives around current topics like fake news gender neutral pronouns and the MeToo movement

Performance Art in Practice Aapo Kustaa Korkeaoja,2023-12-13 Performance Art in practice pedagogical approaches opens up a variety of philosophies that explore explain and challenge Performance art and introduces a range of practices used in higher level education The book is a collection of nine independent essays All the writers have several years of practice as artists curators teachers professors researchers and in establishing performance art education in Finland The essays explain challenge and deconstruct performance art from various angles the body as a tool and a base of identity self as material pedagogic acts of dissidence challenging societal questions without politicizing art building sustainable artwork based on emotions intuition and research using Fluxus scores in contemporary practices etc are all topics dealt by the writers of Performance Art in practice pedagogical approaches The essays are written from a practical point of view how do we concretely teach performance art why have we chosen these ways and what are the outcomes Teaching the experimental art form that doesn t wear a uniform and relies on ever changing time and space isn t all evident Deconstructing performance art and reconstructing pedagogy springs out ideas that are relevant also elsewhere in the contemporary society The book challenges art school institutions Individuality bound to collegiality fruitful dialogue that bases on trust and sharing with a sociologically and politically challenging curricula come out in texts written by Aapo Korkeaoja Eero Yli Vakkuri Jussi Matilainen Pia Lindy and Tuomas Laitinen that refer to the remote countryside campus of SAMK Kankaanpää school of art More urban perspective with philosophies research interests and pedagogic practices at The University of Arts Helsinki are opened up by Tero Nauha Annette Arlander Pilvi Porkola and Leena Kela in their essays Maturing with Moxie Jan
