Holmes-Sheehan Correspondence Oliver Wendell Holmes (Jr.), Patrick Augustine Sheehan, 1993 Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr distinguished American jurist and Patrick Augustine Sheehan an Irish clerical savant enjoyed a warm and notable friendship based largely on their exchange of letters from 1903 when they first met in Ireland until 1913 the year of Sheehan's death This correspondence illuminates what is otherwise a largely hidden and little appreciated side of the mind and faith of Justice Holmes Sheehan was able to draw from his friend an awareness and sympathy for human frailty and its counterpoint faith in a divine plan of earthly things thoughts and feelings that surfaced in letters to other of his friends The importance of this edition of the Holmes Sheehan letters rests in the first instance on this discovery But Canon Sheehan was no mere foil for Holmes as they discussed with equal insight issues as varied as the economic man and the age of faith of classical works including Dante's Divine Comedy and Pascal's Pensees Holmes discovered in the Canon a man of the most profound faith who remained open and tolerant of the beliefs and non beliefs of others He is better understood because of his affection for Sheehan and no less telling because of the Canon's admiration for him Gary J Aichele in Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr Soldier Scholar Judge finds this set of letters perhaps the most unusual of any collection of Holmes correspondence published to date
