Dilemmas of Regional and Local Development Jerzy Bański, 2020-02-13 Dilemmas of Regional and Local Development aims to identify diagnose and evaluate various approaches towards regional and local socio economic development Over the course of the book authors from 12 countries and four continents come together to review experiences and solutions related to regional development in a range of different economic social and political systems The first part of the volume focuses on the fundamentals of planning regional and local development particularly focusing on theoretical solutions and development policy concepts The second part is more applied looking at practical instruments and solutions for shaping the local economy and analysing effective development policy This book will be of interest to economics geography politics and planning scholars and researchers working on regional sciences and local development

Variations of Suburbanism Barbara Schöning, 2015-09 Considered to be subordinated and sub prime to the city sub urban areas receive little attention by researchers and designers However it is the rapidly growing areas outside the central cities that pose the biggest questions of the urban millennium How can the scattered patchwork of urban areas and social spaces linked by networks of highways and public transportation function as a sustainable and livable urban environment Answering this question requires understanding suburban spaces as heterogeneous urban areas with distinct local characteristics qualities and problems Following this path Variations of Suburbanism explores formation characteristics and trends of suburban areas all over the world It provides insights on common features and differences of suburban governance design and infrastructure and discusses strategies to understand and design suburban areas in an increasingly sub urbanizing world

The State of Food Security and Nutrition in the World 2023 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, International Fund for Agricultural Development, United Nations Children's Fund, World Food Programme, World Health Organization, 2023-07-12 This report provides an update on global progress towards the targets of ending hunger SDG Target 2.1 and all forms of malnutrition SDG Target 2.2 and estimates on the number of people who are unable to afford a healthy diet Since its 2017 edition this report has repeatedly highlighted that the intensification and interaction of conflict climate extremes and economic slowdowns and downturns combined with highly unaffordable nutritious foods and growing inequality are pushing us off track to meet the SDG 2 targets However other important megatrends must also be factored into the analysis to fully understand the challenges and opportunities for meeting the SDG 2 targets One such megatrend and the focus of this year's report is urbanization New evidence shows that food purchases in some countries are no longer high only among urban households but also among rural households Consumption of highly processed foods is also increasing in peri urban and rural areas of some countries These changes are affecting people's food security and nutrition in ways that differ depending on where they live across the rural urban continuum This timely and relevant theme is aligned with the United Nations General Assembly endorsed New Urban Agenda and the report provides recommendations on the policies investments and actions needed to address the challenges of agrifood systems transformation under urbanization and to enable opportunities for ensuring access to affordable healthy diets for everyone A Broad View of Regional Science Soushi Suzuki, Roberto Patuelli, 2021-01-19 This book celebrates the life and work of Peter Nijkamp whose research provides a strong focus on regional science His work follows a rigorous comprehensive approach centred around analytical modelling and methodological innovation This edited volume like Prof Nijkamp s research covers a wide range of topics in regional science analysed through multi criteria evaluation evaluation modelling econometrics and simulations among other methods These tools are applied to the analysis of society and culture tourism and information cities environment and sustainability Professor Nijkamp is one of the founders and the past president of the Regional Science Association International His work forms a valuable reference for researchers scholars policymakers and students in the field of regional science and other disciplines This volume timed to coincide with his 75th birthday celebrates Prof Nijkamp s great contributions to regional science He also promoted and participated in the education and development of young researchers not only in regional science but also in other fields supervising many Ph D students and hosting even more as guests in Amsterdam Contributors to this volume include Prof Nijkamp s former doctoral students and guest researchers as well as associates and colleagues

Urban Movements and Their Impact on Spatial Transformation Cumhur Olcar, 2023-04-24 Migration is no longer a movement from the rural to the urban but rather from city to city or from the city to the metropolis in this swiftly urbanising world This book uses new paradigms to explain why urban movements rise from the development of cities and are gradually increasing It urges new Urban Studies to recognise that the rate of urbanisation occurring in developing regions is higher than that of developed regions and that the change is profound A multidisciplinary approach is a prerequisite for Urban Studies to understand urban movements and the struggle for urban space in the nearby future of cities worldwide

Transforming Food Systems for a Rising India Prabhu Pingali, Anaka Aiyar, Mathew Abraham, Andaleeb Rahman, 2019-05-14 This open access book examines the interactions between India s economic development agricultural production and nutrition through the lens of a Food Systems Approach FSA The Indian growth story is a paradoxical one Despite economic progress over the past two decades regional inequality food insecurity and malnutrition problems persist Simultaneously recent trends in obesity along with micro nutrient deficiency portend to a future public health crisis This book explores various challenges and opportunities to achieve a nutrition secure future through diversified production systems improved health and hygiene environment and greater individual capability to access a balanced diet contributing to an increase in overall productivity The authors bring together the latest data and scientific evidence from the country to map out the current state of food systems and nutrition outcomes They place India within the context of other developing country experiences and highlight India s status as an outlier in terms of the persistence of high levels of stunting while following global trends in obesity This book discusses the policy and institutional interventions needed for promoting a nutrition sensitive food system and the multi sectoral strategies needed for simultaneously addressing the triple burden of malnutrition in India      Urban Changes in Different Scales International Geographical Union. Commission on Monitoring Cities of Tomorrow. Meeting, Rubén Camilo Lois González, 2006      Reimagining Urban Planning in Africa Patrick Brandful Cobbinah, Eric Gaisie, 2023-12-21 A multi disciplinary examination of urban planning in Africa exploring its history and advocating for new approaches      City Fictions of the New India Alex Tickell, 2025-04-24 How does Indian fiction imagine urban transformation India's cities were once maligned as places of economic stasis and deprivation but in the era of the so called New India 2000 present centres like Delhi and Mumbai have been recast as engines of economic growth and reshaped by prestige infrastructure Yet the provision of core infrastructures for all remains a major challenge for urban governance City Fictions is the first study of its kind to read anglophone Indian writing infrastructurally by taking account of the centrality of water utilities waste processing residential architecture and road rail and telephonic networks in contemporary representations of urban citizenship In a detailed historicized account of India's changing cities City Fictions analyses selected literary works in relation to key governmental and political discourses from early nationalist ideas of command economy infrastructure and mid century town planning to futuristic visions of the Heritage Cities Smart Cities and new urban satellite developments It also plots changing ideas about civic identity shaped by the rise of a consumerist middle class and the consolidation of a popular Hindu majoritarian politics In the process City Fictions develops an interdisciplinary literary critical approach that draws on eco criticism urbanism and new materialism Covering key fictions by Arundhati Roy Aravind Adiga Vikram Chandra Raj Kamal Jha and Githa Hariharan as well as literary journalism by Katherine Boo and Saumya Roy graphic fiction by Sarnath Banerjee and television drama by Richie Mehta this book shows how fiction discloses vital issues of collective rights equality and resourcing that are immanent in the infrastructure of India's cities      The Urbanisation of the Sea Nancy Couling, Carola Hein, 2020-12-02 The book tells the story of the sea land continuum based on the case of the North Sea one of the world's most industrialised seas in which the Netherlands plays a central role The space of the North Sea is almost fully planned and has been loaded with the task of increased economic production from new and traditional maritime sectors At the same time it has been emptied of cultural significance Through diverse projects from academia art literature and practice from analysis to design the book explores synergies for designing this new spatial realm Port city expert Carola Hein professor of the history of architecture urban planning at Delft University of Technology and Nancy Couling associate professor at the Bergen School of Architecture and researcher of the urbanised sea combine forces with interdisciplinary experts to guide the reader through this complex and fascinating topic      The Italian Urban System Piero Bonavero, Giuseppe Dematteis, Fabio Sforzi, 2019-06-04 First published in 1999 this volume situates the Italian urban system within a European context examining the best approach to integration Connections between urban development territorial cohesion and the European urban system have been clearly identified by Europe 2000 1991 and identified as primary instruments for achieving social and economic cohesion and competitiveness as per the Treaty of Maastricht and the White Paper Growth Competitiveness Employment 1993 This book aids this endeavour through featuring contributions on cities as nodes of transport networks economic change the demographic transition the local milieu regional cohesion and global networks and how the system can integrate into European urban networks      City of Crisis Frank Eckardt, Javier Ruiz Sánchez, 2015-08-15 The ongoing crisis in Europe has dramatic impact on the life in many Southern European cities Unemployment social deprivation poverty political instability severe cuts in the welfare state budgets and a wide spread feeling of despair have eroded much of the social foundation of the cities In this book contributors from Spain Greece Portugal and Italy provide an insight into the complex interference between the different aspects of the crisis They show that the recent urban crisis is not purely a result of the budgetary problems of the nation state austerity urbanism but needs to be seen as multiple contestations The Crisis of the City is therefore understood as a result of a changing nation state cultural diversity challenged urban planning and politics and a globalized economy
