case studies that explore issues faced by school principals as is related to instructional leadership The scenarios presented here allow students to gain a more thorough understanding of the Professional Standards for Educational Leaders PSEL 2015 and their performance competencies These scenarios are designed to develop new school leaders These cases provide opportunities to create meaningful learning experiences for courses professional development programs and the mentoring of new school principals giving them exposure to the kinds of dilemmas they will encounter as they take on their leadership roles or start out on supervisory positions The cases are based on real life dilemmas reflect contemporary issues in our school buildings and are designed to be easily used or adapted across all school types The cases are taken from many years of experience as an educator administrator consultant and researcher in rural suburban and urban school districts

Lessons for the Social Studies Classroom M. Lazarus, S. Cohen, K. Lambert, R. E, 2013-03-12 The idea for this book came while I was observing a student teacher and a master teacher I realized that most student teachers while in training do not have the opportunity to think creatively about their lessons I also noticed that teachers new to the field of teaching suffer the same fate they are too busy trying to survive the day and are not sure how to plan and organize their teaching Lesson plans are one of the most important tools for a teacher and more important for the novice teacher I believe that during student teaching or during their undergraduate years if students were equipped with this book their first year teaching will not look so first year Imagine an undergraduate class filled with soon to be Social Studies teachers discussing these selected lesson plans improving upon them and making them their own Most first year teachers over teach or under teach and both types still miss the marks on the standardized test These lesson plans will give the new teacher a place to begin America's History for the AP® Course Rebecca Edwards, Eric Hinderaker, Robert O.
