Define these terms:

Aesthetic This has to do with the beauty of something rather than its usefulness.

Allegory This is a story with two or more levels of meaning--a literal level and a symbolic level--in which events, setting, and characters are symbols for ideas or qualities.

Alliteration This is the repetition of initial consonant sounds at the beginnings of words.

Allusion This is the reference to a person, place, or event from history, literature, or religion with which a reader is likely to be familiar.

Analogy This is a comparison based on a similarity between things that are otherwise dissimilar.

Analyze This is to separate a whole into its parts.

Archetypal Character This is a character in a work that is very typical of a certain type of person.

Archetype This is the original model for a person, place, thing, or idea appearing later in history, folklore, literature, or myth. It is a symbol, setting, character, or theme that has universal meaning.

Argument This involves one or more reasons presented by a speaker or a writer to lead the audience or reader to a logical conclusion.

Argument The logical, systematic presentation of reasoning and supporting evidence that proves the validity of a statement or position.

Argumentation This is the kind of writing that tries to persuade readers to accept an author's opinions.

Assonance This is the repetition of vowel sounds followed by different consonants in two or more stressed syllables.

Author's Purpose This is the reason for creating written work.

Ballad This is a rhymed, songlike poem that tells a story, often dealing with adventure or romance.

Believability This is the ability to trust something as true or credible.

Bias This is a prejudice that is leaning toward a positive or negative judgment on something; a personal judgment or opinion about a particular person, position, or thing.

Blank Verse This is poetry written in unrhymed iambic pentameter.

Categorical Claim This rhetorical strategy contains a statement that is an arguable interpretation of the facts. It is present when people can disagree about the definition of the category to which the object or person belongs.

Central Idea The key point made in a written passage; the chief topic.

Character This is an individual's mental or moral quality.

Characterization This is the combination of ways that an author shows readers what a person in a literary selection is like.

Characters These are the people or animals who take part in a literary work.

Classical Literature This includes great masterpieces of the Greek, Roman, and other ancient civilizations as well as any writing that is widely considered a model of its form.

Climax This is the part of the plot where the conflict and tension reach a peak.

Communication This is the process of sending and receiving information. This interaction between individuals includes three categories: verbal, nonverbal, and written.
