

"Well, it kind of is, at least for me," JJ explained as she kicked her feet onto her desk. "My parents are waiting for me to 'come around.'"

You know, be a good girl and make them proud. This is their version of boarding school, or boot camp. Lord knows they've already tried all that crap."

"Well, it's sort of the opposite for me," Eve said.

"You trying to escape something?"

Eve hesitated. "I guess you could say that."

"Dynamic. I respect that." She paused. "You never answered my question, you know. Everyone's here for a reason. What was your golden ticket?"

"I'm just smart."

"Ah, yes, the nerd-type. There are plenty of you guys here."

Eve took a step, albeit a minuscule one, out of her comfort zone.

"You?"

Dialogues with Shklovsky Slav N. Gratchev, Irina Evdokimova, 2019-04-10 Dialogues with Shklovsky The Duvakin Interviews 1967 1968 reflects the spirit of times when the most dramatic events of the twentieth century were happening in Russia and the USSR The first English translation of the 1967 1968 interviews with the founder of the Formalist School of literary theory Viktor Shklovsky this volume offers a slice of Russian micro history that relies on the living voice of that history Through the transcription of a six hour phono document the readers will hear the voice of a real participant in events that for the longest time in the USSR were forbidden to be discussed or written about

Dialogue With Bakhtin on Second and Foreign Language Learning Joan Kelly Hall, Gergana Vitanova, Ludmila A. Marchenkova, 2004-12-13 This volume is the first to explore links between the Russian linguist Mikhail Bakhtin's theoretical insights about language and practical concerns with second and foreign language learning and teaching Situated within a strong conceptual framework and drawing from a rich empirical base it reflects recent scholarship in applied linguistics that has begun to move away from formalist views of language as universal autonomous linguistic systems and toward an understanding of language as dynamic collections of cultural resources According to Bakhtin the study of language is concerned with the dialogue existing between linguistic elements and the uses to which they are put in response to the conditions of the moment Such a view of language has significant implications for current understandings of second and foreign language learning The contributors draw on some of Bakhtin's more significant concepts such as dialogue utterance heteroglossia voice and addressivity to examine real world contexts of language learning The chapters address a range of contexts including elementary and university level English as a second language and foreign language classrooms and adult learning situations outside the formal classroom The text is arranged in two parts Part I Contexts of Language Learning and Teaching contains seven chapters that report on investigations into specific contexts of language learning and teaching The chapters in Part II Implications for Theory and Practice present broader discussions on second and foreign language learning using Bakhtin's ideas as a springboard for thinking This is a groundbreaking volume for scholars in applied linguistics language education and language studies with an interest in second and foreign language learning for teacher educators and for teachers of languages from elementary to university levels It is highly relevant as a text for graduate level courses in applied linguistics and second and foreign language education CSEC ENGLISH "B"

Power, Robert DiAntonio, 1998 This book dispels the mystery and dread often associated with writing an application essay guiding students painlessly through the process Chinese Ethics in a Global Context Karl-Heinz Pohl, Anselm

Müller, 2022-04-19 How do Chinese and Western ethical traditions interact today In this collection of articles both Chinese and Western scholars carefully examine the issue one of fundamental importance for the mutual understanding between China and the West The volume is the result of the second symposium which focused on a dialogue between China and the West on questions of ethics in particular concerning their commensurability and a possible common ground The first part of the book discusses general problems of ethics in a cross cultural context followed by articles on ethical bases of Chinese and Western societies respectively Further topics range from moral traditions in the context of social transformation in China today to developments in Western societies politics education and religion The last part deals with controversial issues such as human rights vs human duties and medical ethics Literary Construction of Identity in the Ancient World Hanna

Liss, Manfred Oeming, 2010-06-30 Encountering an ancient text not only as a historical source but also as a literary artifact entails an important paradigm shift which in recent years has taken place in classical and Oriental philology Biblical scholars Egyptologists and classical philologists have been pioneers in supplementing traditional historical critical exegesis with more literary approaches This has led to a wealth of new insights While the methodological consequences of this shift have been discussed within each discipline until recently there has not been an attempt to discuss its validity and methodology on an interdisciplinary level In 2006 the Faculty of Bible and Biblical Interpretation at the Hochschule für Jüdische Studien Heidelberg and the Faculty of Theology at the University of Heidelberg invited scholars from the U S Canada the Netherlands Israel and Germany to examine these issues Under the title Literary Fiction and the Construction of Identity in Ancient Literatures Options and Limits of Modern Literary Approaches in the Exegesis of Ancient Texts experts in Egyptology classical philology ancient Near Eastern studies biblical studies Jewish studies literary studies and comparative religion came together to present current research and debate open questions At this conference each representative from a total of 23 different disciplines dealt with literary theory in regard to his or her area of research The present volume organizes 17 of the resulting essays along 5 thematic lines that show how similar issues are dealt with in different disciplines 1 Thinking of Ancient Texts as Literature 2 The Identity of Authors and Readers 3 Fiction and Fact 4 Rereading Biblical Poetry and 5 Modeling the Future by Reconstructing the Past

T.P.'s and Cassell's Weekly, 1927 Dialogue Games L. Carlson, 2012-12-06 This essay constitutes yet another approach to the fields of inquiry variously known as discourse analysis discourse grammar text grammar functional 1 syntax or text linguistics An attempt is made to develop a fairly abstract unified theoretical framework for the description of discourse which actually helps explain concrete facts of the discourse grammar of a natural language 2 This plan is reflected in the division of the study into two parts In the first part a semiformal framework for describing conversational discourse is developed in some detail In the second part this framework is applied to the functional syntax of English The relation of the discourse grammar of Part II to the descriptive frame work of Part I can be instructively compared to the relation of Tarskian semantics to model theory Tarski s semantics defines a concept of truth of a sentence in a model an independently identified construct Analogously my rules of discourse grammar define a concept of appropriateness of a sentence to a given context The task of the first Part of the essay is to characterize the relevant notion of context Although my original statement of the problem was linguistic how to describe the meaning or function of certain aspects of word order and intonation Part I is largely an application of various methods and results of philosophical logic The justification of the interdisciplinary approach is the simplicity and naturalness of the eventual answers to specific linguistic problems in Part II

Qualitative Analysis Using ATLAS.ti Nicholas H. Woolf, Christina Silver, 2017-09-11

Software is cut and dried every button you press has a predictable effect but qualitative analysis is open ended and unfolds in unpredictable ways This contradiction is best resolved by separating analytic strategies what you plan to do from software tactics how you plan to do it Expert ATLAS ti users have unconsciously learned to do this The Five Level QDA method unpacks the process so that you can learn it consciously and efficiently The first part of the book explains how the contradiction between analytic strategies and software tactics is reconciled by translating between them The second part provides both an in depth description of how ATLAS ti works and comprehensive instruction in the five steps of translation these steps are illustrated with examples from a variety of research projects The third part contains real world qualitative research projects from a variety of disciplines methodologies and kinds of qualitative analysis all illustrated in ATLAS ti using the Five Level QDA method The book is accompanied by three sets of videos demonstrations on the Companion Website While this book uses screenshots from the current ATLAS ti Version 8 it is still fully applicable to users of older versions The book and accompanying videos illustrate the Windows version of ATLAS ti As there are some differences in screen and interface design between the Mac and Windows versions please watch the video The ATLAS ti Mac Interface in the Component Orientation series of videos available September 2017 The Five Level QDA method is based on the authors combined 40 years of experience teaching ATLAS ti and other software packages used as platforms for conducting qualitative analysis After many years observing their students challenges they developed the Five Level QDA method to describe the process that long time ATLAS ti experts unconsciously adopt The Five Level QDA method is independent of software program or methodology and the principles apply to any type of qualitative project Please see the following URL to access the accompanying materials for this book <https://www.qdaservices.co.uk/five-level-qda>
