Raising The Bar:

Raising the Bar Claude Fussler, Aron Cramer, Sebastian van der Vegt, 2017-09-08 This book produced by a unique team of business experts and UN agencies is designed to fill a critical void between the support of more than 1 000 organisations for the globally recognised Principles of the United Nations Global Compact and the need for this support to be translated into the day to day running of business to create value and improve performance The ten Global Compact Principles cover human rights labour standards environmental responsibility and anti corruption But what does it mean to implement the Compact and its principles How can the broad brush strokes of the Principles form the basis of management change And how should companies establish benchmarks and performance indicators for implementation For many companies the journey is just starting How can they ensure that they align with the Global Compact in ways that continue to reward their other business objectives How should they embrace and capitalise on the Global Compact's potential for bringing together business the public sector trade unions and civil society in new partnerships The aim of this book is to answer these questions by providing a performance model clearly grounded on the total quality management approach to assist businesses in putting the Global Compact into practice Raising the Bar collects together and categorises a wealth of corporate responsibility tools good practice and case studies in a structure familiar to anyone aware of business excellence models and demonstrates that values create value leadership commitment to the Global Compact can impact both the boardroom and the shop floor public image and balance sheet Full of graphics and designed with accessibility in mind the book will be a goldmine for managers looking for inspiration on how their businesses can be good corporate citizens and real proof that good business is also good for the bottom line

Raising the Bar for Productive Cities in Latin America and the Caribbean María Marta Ferreyra,Mark Roberts,2018-06-07 With more than 70 percent of its population living in cities Latin America and the Caribbean LAC is among the most urbanized regions in the world Yet although its cities are on average more productive than those elsewhere in the world their productivity lags that of North American and Western European cities Closing this gap provides LAC with the opportunity to raise living standards and join the ranks of the world s richest countries Raising the Bar Cities and Productivity in Latin America and the Caribbean is about the productivity of cities in LAC and the factors that help to explain its determination Based on original empirical research the report documents the high levels of population density and other features of LAC cities that mark them out from those in the rest of the world The report also studies the role of three key factors urban form skills and access to markets in determining the productivity of LAC cities It shows that while excessive congestion forces and inadequate metropolitan coordination seem to be stifling the benefits of agglomeration LAC cities benefit from strong human capital externalities It also finds that within individual LAC countries cities are poorly integrated with one another which contributes to large differences in performance across cities and undermines their aggregate contribution to productivity at the national level Raising the Bar on Service Excellence Baird Kristin Psy.

D.,2013-05-22 Raising the Bar on Service Excellence concentrates on five crucial leadership actions that will shift your organization from good to great Once again Baird pushes the reader out of the theory mode and into action Each chapter features case examples and concludes with specific leadership action steps that will bring the organization closer to living the mission vision values and brand promise Raising the Bar Gary Erickson,2012-08-28 In April of 2000 Gary Erickson turned down a 120 million offer to buy his thriving company Today instead of taking it easy for the rest of his life and enjoying a luxurious retirement he s working harder than ever Why would any sane person pass up the financial opportunity of a lifetime Raising the Bar tells the amazing story of Clif Bar s Gary Erickson and shows that some things are more important than money Gary Erickson and coauthor Lois Lorentzen tell the unusual and inspiring story about following your passion the freedom to create sustaining a business over the long haul and living responsibly in your community and on the earth Raising the Bar chronicles Clif Bar s ascent from a homemade energy bar to a 100 million phenomenon with an estimated 35 million consumers and a company hailed by Inc magazine as one of the fastest growing private companies in the U S four years in a row The book is filled with compelling personal stories from Erickson s life trekking in the Himalayan mountains riding his bicycle over roadless European mountain passes climbing in the Sierra Nevada range as inspiration for his philosophy of business Throughout the book Erickson a competitive cyclist jazz musician world traveler mountain climber wilderness guide and entrepreneur convinces us that sustaining one s employees community and environment is good business If you are a manager executive business owner or board member Raising the Bar is your personal guide to corporate integrity If you are a sports enthusiast environmentalist adventure lover intrigued by a unique corporate culture or just interested in a good story Raising the Bar is for you

Shaping the Bar Joan Howarth, 2022-12-13 The comprehensive source on attorney licensing and how to reform it In Shaping the Bar Joan Howarth describes how the twin gatekeepers of the legal profession law schools and licensers are failing the public Attorney licensing should be laser focused on readiness to practice law with the minimum competence of a new attorney According to Howarth requirements today are both too difficult and too easy Amid the crisis in unmet legal services record numbers of law school graduates disproportionately people of color are failing bar exams that are not meaningful tests of competence to practice At the same time after seven years of higher education hundreds of thousands of dollars of law school debt two months of cramming legal rules and success on a bar exam a candidate can be licensed to practice law without ever having been in a law office or even seen a lawyer with a client Howarth makes the case that the licensing rituals familiar to generations of lawyers unfocused law degrees and obsolete bar exams are protecting members of the profession more than the public Beyond explaining the failures of the current system this book presents the latest research on competent lawyering and examples of better approaches This book presents the path forward by means of licensing changes to protect the public while building an inclusive diverse competent ethical profession Thoughtful and engaging Shaping the Bar is both an authoritative account of attorney licensing and a pragmatic handbook for overdue equitable reform of a powerful profession
