Database Management System Jagdish Chandra Patni,Hitesh Kumar Sharma,Ravi Tomar,Avita Katal,2022-01-26 A database management system DBMS is a collection of programs that enable users to create and maintain a database it also consists of a collection of interrelated data and a set of programs to access that data Hence a DBMS is a general purpose software system that facilitates the processes of defining constructing and manipulating databases for various applications

The primary goal of a DBMS is to provide an environment that is both convenient and efficient to use in retrieving and storing database information. It is an interface between the user of application programs on the one hand and the database on the other. The objective of Database Management System: An Evolutionary Approach is to enable the learner to grasp a basic understanding of a DBMS, its need, and its terminologies; discern the difference between the traditional file-based systems and a DBMS; code while learning to grasp theory in a practical way; study provided examples and case studies for better comprehension. This book is intended to give undergraduate and postgraduate students a fundamental background in DBMSs. The book follows an evolutionary learning approach that emphasizes the basic concepts and builds a strong foundation to learn more advanced topics including normalizations, normal forms, PL/SQL, transactions, concurrency control, etc. This book also gives detailed knowledge with a focus on entity-relationship (ER) diagrams and their reductions into tables with sufficient SQL codes for a more practical understanding.

MCS-023: Introduction to Database Management Systems Dr. DK Sukhani, This book is useful for IGNOU BCA/MCA students. A perusal of past questions papers gives an idea of the type of questions asked, the paper pattern, and so on. It is for this benefit we provide these IGNOU MCS-023 Introduction to Database Management Systems Notes. Students are advised to refer these solutions in conjunction with their reference books. It will help you to improve your exam preparations.
