Visualizing Secularism and Religion Maha Yahya, 2012-05-22 Over the past two decades secular politics across the globe have witnessed an increasing turn to religion based political movements such as the rise of political Islam and Hindu nationalism which have been fueling new and alternative notions of nationhood and national ideologies The rise of such movements has initiated widespread debates over the meaning efficacy and normative worth of secularism Visualizing Secularism and Religion examines the constitutive role of religion in the formation of secular national public spheres in the Middle East and South Asia arguing that in order to establish secularism as the dominant national ideology of countries such as Turkey Lebanon and India the discourses practices and institutions of secular nation building include rather than exclude religion as a presence within the public sphere The contributors examine three fields urban space and architecture media and public rituals such as parades processions and commemorative festivals with a view to exploring how the relation between secularism religion and nationalism is displayed and performed This approach demands a reconceptualization of secularism as an array of contextually specific practices ideologies subjectivities and performances rather than as simply an abstract legal bundle of rights and policies Rama ANANT PAI,1971-04-01

Rama was happy living in the forest with his wife and brother Palace intrigue may have forced his exile but the next fourteen years promised to be quite pleasant Suddenly this idyllic life was thrown into turmoil His beloved wife Sita was kidnapped With unmatched skill as a warrior Rama destroyed the ten headed Ravana And along the way he won a host of very grateful friends
