Random Musings of a Disorderly Mind Simon Stock,2024-12-06 Have you ever woken up wondering what the day will bring If this includes fishing around inside someone s intestines being sent photos of bodily fluids or even pretending to be dead then you may just happen to be a surgeon If it includes retrieving arrows knives and other foreign bodies from various anatomical locations then you may be a trauma surgeon If it also includes rescuing patients from spitting monks and overdosing pharmacists then you probably work as a doctor in Southeast Asia From the relative safety of a 1970s UK medical school to the extremes of modern day Cambodia enter the world of funny sad baffling and at times unbelievable encounters with patients teachers and colleagues over five decades On the Origin of Mind Martin Wurzinger,2007 On the origin of Mind is a detailed description of how the mind works It explains the dynamics from the neuronal level upwards to the scale of group behaviour society and culture Publisher s website

Maupassant and the American Short Story Richard Fusco,2010-11-01 Maupassant and the American Short Story isolates and develops more fully than any previous study the impact of Maupassant s work on the writing of Ambrose Bierce O Henry Kate Chopin and Henry James It introduces a new perspective to assess their canons reviving the importance of many often ignored stories and in the cases of Maupassant and O Henry reasserting the necessity of studying such writers to understand the history of the genre An important moment in the history of the short story occurred with the American misreading of Maupassant s use of story structure At the turn of the century writers such as Bierce and O Henry seized upon the surprise inversion form because Maupassant s translators promoted him as championing it Only a few writers such as James and Chopin both of whom read Maupassant in French appreciated his deft handling of form more fully Their vision and the impact of Maupassant upon their fiction was largely ignored by later generations of writers who preferred to associate Maupassant and O Henry with the trick ending story This book details the origins and consequences of this misperception The book further contributes to the study of the short story genre Through an adaptation of Aristotelian concepts Richard Fusco proposes an original approach to short story structure defining and developing seven categories of textual formulas linear ironic coda surprise inversion loop descending helical contrast and sinusoidal As a practitioner of all these forms Maupassant established his mastery of the genre By studying his use of form the book asserts a major reason for his pivotal importance in the historical development of the short story

Third Swan from the Left Debbie Wilson,2015-01-16 When the applause dies down and the stage lights are turned off the dancer takes a bus home to sit in a tub of hot water to soak aching muscles In Third Swan from the Left author Debbie Wilson makes it clear that life in the world of professional dance is not all champagne and tutus The stories in her memoir offer a synopsis of a rich journey from beginning dance at age four to aspiring student through the performance years and her travels around the globe The narrative provides true insight into what it means to be a working dancer Wilsons keen awareness of world politics social inequalities bureaucratic bungling and more provide a comical and critical look at the universe Against the backdrop of dance Third Swan from the Left offers a perspective on the world as Wilson sees it With anecdotes appealing to aspiring dancers former dancers families of dancers and friends Third Swan from the Left shows that dance is a primal connection to our emotional lives beyond the material world we live in a combination of the physical movement and the creative input forces us to constantly connect with our true essence Crafting the Female Subject Susan M. McKenna, 2009 Susan McKenna presents the innovative narratives of Emilia Pardo Baz in Spain's preeminent nineteenth century female writer in Crafting the Female Subject New York Magazine, 1994-09-19 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Bellman, 1908

RECKONING Ronan James Cassidy, 2021-11-03 This is the story of David Michael Sonneman and an ancient cross forged of gold that weaves its way through the ages and the heritage of two long standing families that date back to the colonial foundations of both America and the Caribbean islands of the once formidable Spanish Empire This epic saga is the story of that man and the gift of his golden cross as told through the unlikely lens of a traditional middle class man of Irish American descent Mr Ronan James Cassidy While the lives of both men intersect for the unlikeliest of reasons they are both on a journey in search of their own redemption for varying reasons Mr Sonneman and his sister Nadie are the both the product of neglect and abuse brought about by unfortunate circumstances and centuries old traditions of the deeply European rooted elite caste of American society As both Mr Cassidy and Mr Sonneman discover the dirty secrets of David's past and the untold wealth tied to his ancient cross of gold a plan emerges that was formed long ago by God to return His two once lost children to His graces and levy judgment upon those responsible for the degenerate care of David and his ancestors leading into the American social and financial upheaval of our era This is the song of both men's long sought redemption and the return to grace of those who bore the legacy of the golden cross over the centuries that corresponded to the rise of the west For it is through the emergence of the faith of these two men alone that both manage to persevere through the far different but trying challenges of their life Return to me and My peace be with you are the watchwords offered and answered by these two men Entering the Moral Middle Ground Hubert J. M. Hermans, 2024-03-28 Introduces the concept of a moral middle ground to combat the effects of toxic polarization and divisive identity politics New York Magazine, 1994-09-19 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea American

Lumberman ,1914      Self-construal in Postcolonial Literature Maria-Ana Tupan,2024-12-10 Opening with an analysis of the concept of self construal from Ren Descartes and Immanuel Kant to the beginning of the new millennium this collection of essays contributed by academics from India Romania and Bosnia and Herzegovina removes self construction from the field of anthropology relocating the process within the wake of social and political psychology The postcolonial condition is the catalyst of inquiries into collective traumas in the former colonies in parallel with attempts at writing new narratives in the space left blank by metropolitan representations Transnational space is a palimpsest of conflicting discourses often revealing a double consciousness in writers living in the country of origin as well as in migrants A broader and more complex approach to the postcolonial condition than the reductive and politicized one factor analysis has been attempted benefiting from recent theoretical developments trauma studies identity studies studies of the affect political psychology and others      Boston Weekly Magazine ,1838      Tales from the Dawn-Lit Mountains Subi Taba,2025-03-28 This book is an alluring escape to the land of dawn lit mountains Arunachal Pradesh It features stories that are products of visceral observation and a delicate understanding of the ethnic communities living under intervening shadows of magic and realism in the isolated hinterlands of the state A village is haunted by an insidious spirit tiger A bee sting reminds a Nocte boy of his brother s beheading and transforms him into a deadly headhunter A Donyi Polo priest must continue practising his animistic rituals to preserve the fading vestiges of his indigenous religion The curse of a high priest follows the thief who stole the forbidden sacred ornaments Such evocative and poignant tales make this debut collection a must read      The Boston Weekly Magazine ,1839      Country Life ,1913      The Literary World ,1849      The Presence of the Feminine in Film Virginia Apperson,John Beebe,2009-01-14 This pioneering book introduces a largely unremarked dimension of film the feminine which cannot be reduced to women s experience or to men s projections onto women The Presence of the Feminine in Film gives body to that often rather loosely formulated Jungian conception the feminine aspect of psyche by noticing what feminine turns out to mean in particular cinematic contexts Spanning seven decades from Pride and Prejudice Notorious and Letter from an Unknown Woman to Monsoon Wedding Brokeback Mountain and The Lives of Others the movies selected for particular study here make it clear that the feminine is at home in the movies and that when she appears it is to appeal to our sensibilities as well as to our senses This is a book that will enhance the appreciation of film as a depth psychological medium
