

TREND 2006

The upcoming year continues to redefine and personalize the luxury experience.

BY AMBER MICHELE

As a new year is about to dawn, it's time to take a look at what influences are going to be dominating the months ahead — the social, lifestyle and fashion trends that determine some of the purchases consumers will make. It's no longer a cut-it-out-there-and-they-will-buy-it philosophy of retailing. People expect more of a personal experience and more of a pleasurable experience when they shop.

The idea of luxury being exclusively product-related continues to evolve into a luxury experience as people become more oriented to the experiences in their life and the meaning that these moments hold.
