Australian Westerns in the Fifties Derham Groves, 2022-10-28 Australian Western in the Fifties Kangaroo Hopalong Cassidy on Tour and Whiplash looks at Australian Westerns from three points of view film personal appearance and television at the beginning middle and end of the 1950s the American Western's golden age It looks at three significant but forgotten cases 1 Kangaroo The Australian Story the first Technicolor film made in Australia produced by the Hollywood movie studio 20th Century Fox directed by the Academy Award winning filmmaker Lewis Milestone starring Maureen O'Hara Peter Lawford and Richard Boone 2 The successful goodwill tour of Australia by the Hollywood actor William Boyd who played the film radio and television cowboy Hopalong Cassidy 3 The British American produced black and white TV series Whiplash made in Australia and starring the Hollywood actor Peter Graves The American filmmakers' ignorance of Australia meant they learned the hard way there was more to Australian Westerns than simply replacing the prairie with the bush bison with kangaroos and Native Americans with Aborigines Indeed the depiction of place and the presentation of Aboriginal culture are two of the most intriguing aspects of Australian Westerns In retelling the filmmakers' stories a unique picture of the Australian film and television industry and everyday life during the 1950s is revealed

Gulmahamad, 2009-02-20 Book Description This book is a compilation of 27 short stories and 17 poems written by Dr Hanif Gulmahamad who was born in 1945 on Springlands Sugar Estate Corentyne Berbice in what was then the colonial territory of British Guiana The stories in this book are based on real incidences and events that took place in the 1950 s and early 1960 s while the author was a young lad residing at No 73 Village Corentyne Berbice Guyana The characters mentioned in the stories were real people though most of them are probably now deceased This book was written in 2008 and it is based on the author s best recollections of events which occurred over 45 years ago Due to the fact that four and a half decades elapsed between the actual occurrence of these events and the time they were written these stories may not be completely accurate It is not the intention of the author to portray anyone in these stories in a negative light Real names were mentioned in the stories in an attempt to be as pragmatic as possible Great consideration effort and time were expended in order to keep these stories as realistic and accurate as possible The 1950 s and 1960 s was an idyllic and carefree time for a young lad growing up in a far away village in British Guiana The country was still under colonial rule at that time and there were laws and rules and there was the rule of law It was a safe and secure place to grow up as a young boy Most people in the villages were poor but there were ample opportunities to hunt fish farm and eke out a living For a lad of my age at the time every day was an adventure All you had to do was walk across the road and enter the farmlands and an adventure began Life was simple and even though people worked hard for a living they were for the most part a happy lot Wealth and material possessions were not necessary ingredients for a happy and fulfilling life People accepted their lot in life and did not aspire to unachievable ideals and goals You made do with what you had and you were grateful for what little you had The stories in this book cover a wide variety of events and situations some of which are humorous Children in Guyana particularly those who live away from the cities will find these stories fascinating It is the author s hope that children in Guyana who can most relate to these stories are afforded an opportunity to read this book Back in the day when the author was a young boy in Guiana books were very scarce commodities and anything and everything in print were read with great relish Books told the author things and took him places he could only imagine at the time In those days there were only two radio stations in the entire country and there was no television Two movies theatres were located at Skeldon and the cost of one shilling to attend a movie there was often cost prohibitive to many people The events in these stories were set in a place and time that is now gone and most probably lost forever One of the major goals of the author was to record these stories for posterity The poems in this book cover diverse times topics and places The author currently lives in southern California and works in Los Angeles Some of these poems reflect great nostalgia and longing for a life place and time that is gone For example the poems I am not from here I still have my memories and it was supposed to be a temporary thing convey great yearning for what the author perceives as things that he has lost having left Guyana and migrated to the United States The contents of this book cast some light on the author's life story which is a remarkable one Born to functionally illiterate parents on a British sugar plantation in a faraway place in Guyana the author went on to obtain a PhD degree from the University of California Riverside He has written and published over 60 technical and scientific papers including two chapters in books It is important Mortimer of the Maghreb Henry Shukman,2007-05-08 In this psychologically complex and darkly humorous debut collection awardwinning writer Henry Shukman introduces an unforgettable cast of characters travelers whose certain paths around the world lead invariably back to the uncertain self In The Garden of God an aging ailing war reporter reflects on his adventures covering a little known conflict in the Sahara and the precipitous and disgraced end of his career In Old Providence a dissolute artist mourns a lost love and the bloody perfect island where through his own callow foolishness he lost her In Darien Dogs a man goes south to Panama desperate for a business deal that will restore his finances and sense of mastery only to find himself on a confounding search for a beautiful mysterious woman and his stolen wallet By turns full of suspense farce and poignance always alive with energy and atmosphere these are the stories of a gifted and assured writer

Once Upon a Car LP Bill Vlasic,2011-10-04 Once Upon a Car is the brilliantly reported story of Detroit's fight for survival chronicling how the country's Big Three auto companies General Motors Ford and Chrysler teetered on the brink of collapse during the 2008 financial crisis Bill Vlasic takes readers behind closed doors and into the executive offices assembly plants and union halls to introduce a cast of memorable characters many of whom speak out for the first time including the executives who struggled to save their companies but in the end had to seek a controversial last gasp rescue from the American government The story moves from the gleaming corporate skyscrapers and massive auto plants to the U S Congress and into the Oval Office where President Obama and his aides wrestled with how to keep General Motors and Chrysler from going out of business Vlasic shows why the bailout worked and how Detroit can succeed under new leadership and build automobiles equal to any in the world Once Upon a Car Bill Vlasic,2011-10-04 Once Upon a Car is the brilliantly reported inside the boardrooms and factories story of Detroit's fight for survival going beyond the headlines to chronicle how the country's Big Three auto companies General Motors Ford and Chrysler teetered on the brink of collapse during the 2008 financial crisis In a tale that reads like a corporate thriller Bill Vlasic who has covered the auto industry for more than fifteen years first for the Detroit News and now for the New York Times takes readers into the executive offices assembly plants and union halls to introduce a cast of memorable characters many of whom are speaking out for the first time including the executives who struggled to save their companies but in the end had to seek a controversial last gasp rescue from the U S government Vlasic goes behind the scenes to portray the men at the top during Detroit's last stand Rick

Wagoner the CEO of General Motors tried to turn around a dying company only to be forced to resign as a condition of the government bailout Bill Ford great grandson of the legendary Henry Ford had the will to keep Ford alive but needed the guts to hire an unknown outsider Alan Mulally to transform the company before it crashed At Chrysler leadership was constantly changing as new owners tried in vain to fix the smallest of the beleaguered Big Three And through it all the president of the United Auto Workers union Ron Gettelfinger fought to save the jobs of the men and women who build American made cars and trucks This tale of an iconic industry in crisis is more than a big business drama and provides a rich unvarnished portrait of how Detroit's decline affected tens of thousands of workers and dozens of communities nationwide The story moves from the gleaming corporate skyscrapers and massive auto plants to the halls of the U S Congress and into the Oval Office where President Obama and his aides wrestled with how to keep General Motors and Chrysler from going out of business Vlasic shows why the bailout worked and how Detroit can succeed under new leadership and build automobiles equal to any in the world Once Upon a Car tells a uniquely American tale of success failure and redemption It is an important and illuminating chapter in an astonishing story that is still unfolding And no one is more qualified to write it than Bill Vlasic Kwani? 01
