Raising Black Girls Jawanza Kunjufu, 2014-12-22 An African American Images publication Back cover      Black Girl Magic Beyond the Hashtag Julia S. Jordan-Zachery, Duchess Harris, 2019-09-24 Hashtag or trademark personal or collective expression BlackGirlMagic is an articulation of the resolve of Black women and girls to triumph in the face of structural oppressions The online life of BlackGirlMagic insists on the visibility of Black women and girls as aspirational figures But while the notion of Black girl magic spreads in cyberspace the question remains how is Black girl magic experienced offline The essays in this volume move us beyond social media They offer critical analyses and representations of the multiplicities of Black femmes girls and women s lived experiences Together the chapters demonstrate how Black girl magic is embodied by four elements enacted both on and offline building community challenging dehumanizing representations increasing visibility and offering restorative justice for violence Black Girl Magic Beyond the Hashtag shows how Black girls and women foster community counter invisibility engage in restorative acts and create spaces for freedom Intersectional and interdisciplinary the contributions in this volume bridge generations and collectively push the boundaries of Black feminist thought      Black Girls and Adolescents Catherine Fisher Collins, 2015-03-03 This one of a kind book challenges the current thinking about black girls to show how America has failed them and what can be done to make their lives better African American girls are one of the United States most endangered populations yet meaningful explorations of the issues that impact their lives are almost nonexistent In this riveting book led by one of the African American community s best known scholars experts from across the nation explain the risks challenges and influences both good and bad faced by black girls and teens The work shows how our society is failing them and it outlines what can and should be done to help these young women lead happier healthier more successful lives The book covers a wide range of concerns including obesity substance abuse sex trafficking gangs teen pregnancy and suicide attempts Stress low self esteem anger aggression and violence are explored as are failures of our education system and of a legal system that tends to victimize young black women A substantial section on parenting and mentoring discusses ways to counter the negative influences that are a constant for many black girls and adolescents It is time for American society to recognize and react to the realities these young women face making this book a must read for caring parents teachers nurses guidance counselor doctors school administrators and school board members      African American Young Girls and Women in PreK12 Schools and Beyond Renae D. Mayes, Marjorie C. Shavers, James L. Moore III, 2022-06-02 African American Young Girls and Women in PreK12 Schools and Beyond Informing Research Policy and Practice presents a comprehensive viewpoint on preK 12 schooling for African American females This volume offers readers compelling evidence of the educational challenges and successes for this student population      Parenting for Liberation Trina Greene Brown, 2020-06-25 Speaking directly to parents raising Black children in a world of racialized violence this guidebook combines powerful storytelling with practical exercises encouraging

readers to imagine methods of parenting rooted in liberation rather than fear In 2016 activist and mother Trina Greene Brown created the virtual multimedia platform Parenting for Liberation to connect inspire and uplift Black parents In this book she pairs personal anecdotes with open ended reflective prompts together they help readers dismantle harmful narratives about the Black family and imagine anti oppressive parenting methods Parenting for Liberation fills a critical gap in currently available timely parenting resources Rooted in an Afrofuturistic vision of connectivity and inspiration the community created within these pages works to image a world that amplifies Black girl magic and Black boy joy and everything in between Trina Greene Brown has created a guide for Black parents who want to raise fierce fearless joyful children She knows what a challenge this is given the state of the world but argues that liberated parenting is possible if we commit to knowing and trusting ourselves our children and our communities Anyone curious about how to walk with a child through tumultuous times needs to read this book now Dani McClain author of We Live for the We The Political Power of Black Motherhood     Black Female Undergraduates on Campus Crystal R. Chambers, Rhonda V. Sharpe, 2012-01-05 Intends to identify both successes and challenges faced by Black female students accessing and matriculating through institutions of higher education This volume is aimed toward garnering an understanding of the educational trajectories and experiences of Black females independent of and in comparison to their peers     Cultivating Joyful Learning Spaces for Black Girls Monique W. Morris, 2022-06-23 Build learning environments that support Black girls excellence and academic achievement In this thought provoking and illuminating book former educator and social justice advocate Monique W Morris addresses the harmful policies practices conditions and assumptions that too often criminalize Black girls behavior and steer them down school to confinement pathways in disproportionate numbers The key to disrupting such punitive pushout is for educators to develop meaningful relationships with Black girls connections that are grounded in cultural understanding and focused on helping Black girls develop their identities as valued individuals and contributors to the larger community Such relationships Morris argues can shift Black girls schooling from a punishment oriented experience to one that is joyful healing and transformative Along with her own research and experience Morris explores the topic through in depth conversations with three distinguished educators and clinical practitioners Venus Evans Winters Janice Johnson Dias and Kakenya Ntaiya who provide insights about the challenges of educating Black girls and uplifting accounts of success in promoting their excellence and achievement These conversations and takeaways for practice are essential guideposts for any teacher school leader and policymaker committed to creating learning environments that dispel damaging attitudes and practices and allow Black girls to flourish     Black Intimacies Shirley Ann Hill, 2005 In Black Intimacies A Gender Perspective on Families and Relationships Shirley A Hill applies a gender lens to the multiple systems of oppression that have shaped the lives of African American women and men She challenges the image of a monolithic black population a legacy of the civil rights movement that she argues is impossible to sustain in the postmodern era Through a critique of intersectionality theory Hill examines the ways in which gender has affected experiences of intimacy family relationships child rearing and motherhood for contemporary African Americans Drawing on ethnographic material interviews and scholarly research Hill s work rethinks the cultural and historical definitions of black identity and reconceptualizes the various forms of oppression faced by black women This book will be useful to students and instructors of African American Studies Gender Studies Sociology Anthropology Marriage and Family and Social Work Ebony ,1977-08 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Launching Our Black Children for Success Joyce A.
