TV Guide, 1997 Abortion after Roe Johanna Schoen, 2015-09-28 Abortion is and always has been an arena for contesting power relations between women and men When in 1973 the Supreme Court made the procedure legal throughout the United States it seemed that women were at last able to make decisions about their own bodies In the four decades that followed however abortion became ever more politicized and stigmatized Abortion after Roe chronicles and analyzes what the new legal status and changing political environment have meant for abortion providers and their patients Johanna Schoen sheds light on the little studied experience of performing and receiving abortion care from the 1970s a period of optimism to the rise of the antiabortion movement and the escalation of antiabortion tactics in the 1980s to the 1990s and beyond when violent attacks on clinics and abortion providers led to a new articulation of abortion care as moral work As Schoen demonstrates more than four decades after the legalization of abortion the abortion provider community has powerfully asserted that abortion care is a moral good

Conservative Bias Bryan H. Thrift, 2016-09-27 Conservative Bias examines one of the most notorious figures of modern American politics Jesse Helms Thrift shows that Helms was not merely a right wing demagogue but rather a brilliant media mastermind who built a national movement from a little television soundstage in Raleigh Neil J Young Princeton University In this careful thoughtful and thoroughly researched study Bryan Hardin Thrift provides the first comprehensive study of Jesse Helms s long career as a conservative journalist and television ideologue prior to his long tenure as a U S senator from North Carolina William A Link author of Righteous Warrior Jesse Helms and the Rise of Modern Conservatism Traces a little known but pivotal phase of Helms s pre senatorial career and explains how the future New Right leader used the power of local television broadcasts in the 1960s to forge a new ideology that moved the nation to the right Daniel K Williams author of God s Own Party Before Bill O Reilly and Glenn Beck there was Jesse Helms From in front of a camera at WRAL TV Helms forged a new brand of southern conservatism long before he was a senator from North Carolina As executive vice president of the station Helms delivered commentaries on the evening news and directed the news and entertainment programming He pioneered the attack on the liberal media and his editorials were some of the first shots fired in the culture wars criticizing the influence of immoral entertainment Through the emerging power of the household television Helms established a blueprint and laid the foundation for the modern conservative movement Bryan Thrift mines over 2 700 WRAL TV Viewpoint editorials broadcast between 1960 and 1972 to offer not only a portrait of a skilled rhetorician and wordsmith but also a lens on the way the various and at times competing elements of modern American conservatism cohered into an ideology couched in the language of anti elitism and traditional values Decades prior to the invention of the blog Helms corresponded with his viewers to select refine and sharpen his political message until he had reworked southern traditionalism into a national conservative movement The realignment of southern Democrats into the Republican Party was not easy or inevitable and by examining Helms s oft forgotten journalism career

Thrift shows how delicately and deliberately this transition had to be cultivated Bryan Hardin Thrift teaches history at Johnston Community College SRDS Circulation ,2008 Eleanor Roosevelt on Screen Angela S. Beauchamp,2023-11-16 Eleanor Roosevelt recognized the power of film and television especially as educational tools to reach young people She hosted three political talk shows in the 1950s and early 1960s often appearing in guest spots to promote the United Nations Democratic candidates and progressive issues with Ed Sullivan Bob Hope Frank Sinatra Mike Wallace and Edward R Murrow In the 1930s and 40s fan magazines such as Photoplay and Modern Screen published her opinions on the movies and she boldly appeared in an interventionist prologue to the 1940 anti Nazi film Pastor Hall During World War II she contributed to civil defense films and became a staple joke in Hollywood comedies She also negotiated postwar representations of FDR on the big screen culminating in 1960 s Sunrise at Campobello which portrayed her as the perfect wife This book is the first to address Eleanor Roosevelt s moving image record and her relationship to film and television in the three decades from the 1932 presidential campaign to her death in 1962 The Working Press of the Nation ,2002 TV Directory ,1958

FCC Record United States. Federal Communications Commission,1999 Encyclopaedia of Twentieth Century Journalists William H. Taft,2015-07-16 Originally published in 1986 This book is a unique compilation of biographical sketches which covers editors publishers photographers bureau chiefs columnists commentators cartoonists and artists Alphabetical entries provide overviews of the lives and personalities of a good cross section of important people There is also a short essay on awards and prize winners Everything is efficiently indexed This is a supremely useful reference tool for those in mass media and popular culture fields Musical America's Guide ,1921 New York Magazine ,1986-03-03 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Television's Spatial Capital Myles McNutt,2021-12-30 This book launches a comprehensive detailing of the dramatic expansion of the geography of television production into new cities states provinces and countries and how those responsible for shaping the landscape of television have been forced to adapt taking established strategies for engaging with space and place through mediated representation and renegotiating them to account for the new map of television production Modeling media studies research that considers the intersection of production textuality distribution and reception Myles McNutt identifies how the expansion of where television is produced has intersected with the kinds of places represented on television and how shifts in the production distribution and consumption of television content have shifted the burden of representing cities and countries both locally and internationally Through a combination of industry interviews textual analysis and in depth consideration of industry and audience discourse the book argues that where television takes place matters more today than it ever has but that the current system of spatial capital remains constrained by traditional industry logics that limit the depth of engagement with place identity even as the expectation of authenticity grows significantly

Representing a cross section of media industry studies television studies and cultural geography this book will appeal to scholars and students within multiple areas of media studies including production studies and audience studies in addition to television studies broadly
