ordered expensive wine He paid the bill She spoke of the sea He was haunted by her green eyes and copper colored skin Then in a matter of weeks the woman named Cricket Page would lead Wilson Lander away from the moorings of his familiar life away from his relationship with a successful businesswoman and onto a tycoon s yacht called the Compound Interest for a journey across the great Sargasso Sea Coming ashore in a world of searing mystery and danger Lander will pay the price for his unquenchable desire for Cricket Page for their moments of stolen pleasure and her cryptic promises of a life of luxury together For she is a pirate s daughter and in an exotic land exploding with cruelty and violence populated by maniacs and plunderers Wilson Lander must escape the woman who has stolen his heart and given him his freedom Houston Bound Tyina Steptoe,2015-11-03 From World War I through the 1960s Houston was transformed into one of the most ethnically and racially diverse urban areas in the United States Houston Bound draws on social and cultural history to show how despite Anglo attempts to fix racial categories through Jim Crow laws converging migrations particularly those of Mexicans and Creoles complicated ideas of blackness and whiteness and introduced different understandings about race This migration history also traces the emergence of Houston s blues and jazz scenes in the 1920s as well as the hybrid forms of these genres like zydeco and Tejano soul that arose when migrants forged shared social space Houston s location on the Gulf Coast poised between the American South and the West provides for a particularly rich examination of how the histories of colonization slavery and segregation produced divergent ways of thinking about race Provided by publisher Still Casting Shadows B Clay Shannon,2006-05 Breaking with the traditionally white centric and politician military leader business magnate dominated portrayal of American history Still Casting Shadows A Shared Mosaic of U S History presents a holistic overview of American history giving equal weight and emphasis to the viewpoints and experiences of Native Americans African Americans and other marginalized groups Rather than simply parading forth facts and figures of what important people accomplished or perpetrated Still Casting Shadows delves into what life was like for average families in America from 1620 when the Mayflower landed at Plymouth Massachusetts up to the present day The lives of the individuals portrayed are cast in the context of hundreds of events of national import that occurred in the times and places in which they lived Among those whose lives are thus illuminated in this broad outline of American history are John Howland and Elizabeth Tilley passengers on the Mayflower who subsequently married Capt John Gorham a notorious Indian fighter in Colonial New England Susan Lucky an Indian woman whose tribe was massacred in northern California James Shannon a Civil War sharpshooter who was at Gettysburg and Appomattox and Theodore Shannon a California Highway Patrol officer who was awarded that state s Medal of Valor in 1980 Opportunity Charles Spurgeon Johnson,1923 Sam Henry's Songs of the People Gale Huntington,Lani Herrmann,2010-06-01 The story of Ireland its graces and shortcomings triumphs and sorrows is told by ballads dirges and humorous songs of its common people Music is a direct and powerful expression of Irish folk culture and an aspect of Irish life beloved throughout the rest of the world Incredibly the largest single gathering of Irish folk songs had been almost inaccessible because originally newspaper based it was available in only three libraries in Belfast Dublin and Washington D C Sam Henry s Songs of the People makes the music available to a wider audience than the collector ever imagined Comprising nearly 690 selections this thoroughly annotated and indexed collection is a treasure for anyone who performs composes studies collects or simply enjoys folk music It is valuable as an outstanding record of Irish folk songs before World War II demonstrating the historical ties between Irish and Southern folk culture and the tremendous Irish influence on American folk music In addition to the songs themselves and their original commentary Sam Henry s Songs of the People includes a glossary bibliography discography index of titles and first lines melodic index index of the original sources of the songs and information about them geographical index of sources and three appendixes related to the original song series in the Northern Constitution Graham's Magazine ,1856 One False Step Joseph Flynn,2011-04-30 Two cops Bibi Ferrer San Diego homicide receives a warning Billionaire Anson Williams will be done in by his new wife Alexandra Despite her best efforts Bibi fails to prevent Williams death Worse she can t prove Alexandra is the killer All she can do is follow Alexandra to her Caribbean lair the island of St Bertram Things are even more personal for retired Chicago police captain Terry Dunne His younger brother is killed by a contract assassin His only clue The hit man might have unfinished business waiting for him on St Bertram Two killers Avice Toussaint formerly Alexandra Williams isn t every man s idea of a knockout only those with a pulse She s bored with luring wealthy men to their deaths Problem is her father wants her to continue He s ex KGB He kills people who defy him no exceptions made for family George Beecher was an SAS commando a master of combat He was far less suited to following orders After his court martial and discharge from the military he continued to do the only thing he knew how kill people This time for money One plan Bibi and Terry cross paths Not wanting to alert their prey they decide to shadow each other s killer Get the goods on the killers and see that justice is done It s a plan but when do those things ever work out One Grand, Sweet Song Sam Pickering,2016-10-15 One Grand Sweet Song is a collection of familiar essays in which Sam Pickering explores libraries and woods and fields He wanders over hills and far away to Caribbean and Canada but he always returns to the local to Connecticut and his memories of a Southern childhood He ponders writing and aging joy and lunacy He celebrates family and Christmas He laughs and tells terrible lies and jokes He runs half marathons and on a farm in Nova Scotia he tries to write his Walden O World I cannot hold thee close enough Edna St Vincent Millay once exclaimed In these pages Pickering embraces his world with great love wrapping it in words and pulling it and the reader unforgettably close Pickering has written 28 books and 100s of articles The subject matter of the books ranges Three are scholarly studies two of which focus on 18th century children s literature Four are travel books three of these describing his family s meanderings in Australia One book mulls teaching and another is a memoir The rest of Pickering s books are collections of familiar essays providing his take or perhaps untake on things Reading Pickering a reviewer wrote in the Smithsonian is like taking a walk with your oldest wittiest friend Book Review Digest ,1929

Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are included The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities social sciences and general science published in the United States Canada and Great Britain Publisher The Athenaeum ,1904 Blacks in Appalachia William H. Turner,Edward J. Cabbell,2021-03-17 Although southern Appalachia is popularly seen as a purely white enclave blacks have lived in the region from early times Some hollows and coal camps are in fact almost exclusively black settlements The selected readings in this new book offer the first comprehensive presentation of the black experience in Appalachia Organized topically the selections deal with the early history of blacks in the region with studies of the black communities with relations between blacks and whites with blacks in coal mining and with political issues Also included are a section on oral accounts of black experiences and an analysis of black Appalachian demography The contributors range from Carter Woodson and W E B Du Bois to more recent scholars such as Theda Perdue and David A Corbin An introduction by the editors provides an overall context for the selections Blacks in Appalachia focuses needed attention on a neglected area of Appalachian studies It will be a valuable resource for students of Appalachia and of black history
