Now the Chips Are Down Alison Gazzard,2016-02-12 The story of a pioneering microcomputer its beginnings as part of a national Computer Literary Project its innovative hardware and its creative uses In 1982 the British Broadcasting Corporation launched its Computer Literacy Project intended to introduce interested adults to the world of computers and computing The BBC accompanied this initiative with television programs courses books and software an early experiment in multi platform education The BBC along with Acorn Computers also introduced the BBC Microcomputer which would be at the forefront of the campaign The BBC Micro was designed to meet the needs of users in homes and schools to demystify computing and to counter the general pessimism among the media in Britain about technology In this book Alison Gazzard looks at the BBC Micro examining the early capabilities of multi platform content generation and consumption and the multiple literacies this approach enabled not only in programming and software creation but also in accessing information across a range of media and in do it yourself computing She links many of these early developments to current new media practices Gazzard looks at games developed for the BBC Micro including Granny's Garden an educational game for primary schools and Elite the seminal space trading game She considers the shift in focus from hardware to peripherals describing the Teletext Adapter as an early model for software distribution and the Domesday Project which combined texts video and still photographs as a hypermedia like experience Gazzard's account shows the BBC Micro not only as a vehicle for various literacies but also as a user oriented machine that pushed the boundaries of what could be achieved in order to produce something completely new Educational Music Magazine, 1929 The Supervisors Service Bulletin, 1928 R & D Abstracts Technology Reports Centre (Great Britain), 1980 The quality of life of students and teachers at school, college, high school and university Charles Martin-Krumm, Marie Oger, Nicolas Burel, 2023-12-19 Contested Empire Sam W. Haynes, Gerald D. Saxon, 2015-08-06 To a large degree the story of Texas secession from Mexico has been undertaken by scholars of the state Early twentieth century historians of the revolutionary period most notably Eugene Barker and William Binkley characterized the conflict as a clash of two opposing cultures yet their exclusive focus on the region served to reinforce popular notions of a unique Texas past Disconnected from a broader historiography scholars have been left to ponder the most arcane details of the revolutionary narrative such as the circumstances of David Crockett's death and whether William Barret Travis really did draw a line in the sand. In Contested Empire: Rethinking the Texas Revolution, five distinguished scholars take a broader transnational approach to the 1835-36 conflict. The result of the 48th Annual Walter Prescott Webb Memorial Lectures held at the University of Texas at Arlington in March 2013, these essays explore the origins and consequences of the events that gave birth to the Texas Republic in ways that extend beyond the borders of the Lone Star State.

Bushido way Sam Phillips m anthony phillips, 2015-10-30 M Anthony Phillips presents the debut of his hot new Private Detective series. Vietnam veteran Sam Phillips follows in the footsteps of his father into the world of private investigations. It's the end of the Vietnam War in 1976 during the Fall of Saigon and a battle-worn Sam has just taken over his father's company after his death. With his office above a seedy bar off Hollywood and Vine, Sam and his new assistant Constance Turner go weeks before they land their first case. With the help of his troubled friend Armstrong Jones, fresh out of prison for nearly killing two men, they are paid by an old friend Michelle Yamada of protecting her little brother Ken, a Yakuza gang member being hunted by a rival gang, the Yokohama Black Rebels, who killed their father, a crime boss. In the meantime, Sam finds out he's the father of a five-year-old Amerasian kid from Vietnam dropped off at his doorstep in the middle of the afternoon. Sam and Armstrong must go on the offensive before it's too late.
