

Dear [Mr. /Ms. /Mrs. Last Name]:

I am writing to confirm that Ms. Jane Doe completed community service with the Community Animal Shelter. It gives me pleasure to inform you that Ms. Doe served consistently and eagerly, providing substantial support for our organizational goals.

The Community Animal Shelter is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing care to animals throughout the city. We shelter animals in need, providing lifesaving care and promoting rehabilitation and adoption. In order to offer the best care possible for our animals, we rely on volunteers. These volunteers interact with the animals for their comfort, recreation and health. When Ms. Doe approached us about volunteer opportunities, I was struck by her obvious love of animals. Her interest in helping our four-legged friends made her a good fit, and her time volunteering was meaningful for her and the animals.

Specifically, Ms. Doe helped clean the cages and assisted with other basic maintenance tasks. She spent extra time during her volunteer experience to play with the animals, petting the cats and taking the dogs out to the recreation area. Ms. Doe made herself available as needed to help with the basic care our animals need, proving herself to be a real asset to our team.

Therefore, I am pleased to verify that Ms. Doe completed 100 hours of community service with our organization. For your reference, a certificate for the same has been enclosed with this letter. If any other information is needed, please feel free to contact me at 555-555-5555 or me@freelettersamples.com.

Sincerely,

The Qur'an and Late Antiquity Angelika Neuwirth, 2019-02-19 In this book Angelika Neuwirth provides a new approach to understanding the founding text of Islam

Typical exegesis of the Qur'an treats the text teleologically as a fait accompli finished text or as a replica or summary of the Bible in Arabic. Instead, Neuwirth approaches the Qur'an as the product of a specific community in the Late Antique Arabian peninsula, one which was exposed to the wider worlds of the Byzantine and Sasanian empires and to the rich intellectual traditions of rabbinic Judaism, early Christianity, and Gnosticism. A central goal of the book is to eliminate the notion of the Qur'an as being a historical text. She argues that it is in fact highly aware of its place in late antiquity and is capable of yielding valuable historical information. By emphasizing the liturgical function of the Qur'an, Neuwirth allows readers to see the text as an evolving oral tradition within the community before it became collected and codified as a book. This analysis sheds much needed light on the development of the Qur'an's historical, theological, and political outlook. The book's final chapters analyze the relationship of the Qur'an to the Bible, to Arabic poetic traditions, and more generally to late antique culture and rhetorical forms. By providing a new introduction to the Qur'an, one that uniquely challenges current ideas about its emergence and development, The Qur'an and Late Antiquity bridges the gap between Eastern and Western approaches to this sacred text.
