John Scally, 2025-09-18 This book tells the stories of some great GAA locations and the people linked with them It includes obvious places like Croke Park the Polo Grounds Hayes s Hotel Biddy Early s lake the family to less obvious places like Fijl East Belfast Ellis Island and an internment camp in Wales We also visit the club the unbroken chain in the GAA s ageless passing of wisdom before taking a bypass on the Boulevard of Broken Dreams to a barber s shop and a car park Full of compelling revelations such as for the first time Jack Lynch s startling admission in his final interview of the big regret of his career the GAA s first miracle why Kevin Heffernan lost his temper with Bernard Brogan why Liam Griffin was told he would become a laughing stock the story of Limerick s gate crasher and the day Se n Purcell rose from the dead Churches in

Early Medieval Ireland Tomás Ó Carragáin, 2010 This is the first book devoted to churches in Ireland dating from the arrival of Christianity in the fifth century to the early stages of the Romanesque around 1100 including those built to house treasures of the golden age of Irish art such as the Book of Kells and the Ardagh chalice Carragáin s comprehensive survey of the surviving examples forms the basis for a far reaching analysis of why these buildings looked as they did and what they meant in the context of early Irish society Carragáin also identifies a clear political and ideological context for the first Romanesque churches in Ireland and shows that to a considerable extent the Irish Romanesque represents the perpetuation of a long established architectural tradition Soul Garden Hope Schneir, Sia Hoyt, 2024-11-27 The power of a woman is most concretely observed in the seeds she plants day after day in the lives of those around her Soul Garden is a sizable collection of personal stories essays poems and recipes written to cultivate the motherly role of women by offering inspiration camaraderie and encouragement Contributors from across the country and around the world invite readers to put away their screens and to pick up this lovely tangible book in which they can find nourishment for the soul and tips for practical life Among the nine chapters are Nurture which encourages women in their call to care for the children and other people God has placed in their lives Ponder which considers the lessons blessings and challenges of motherhood Dwell which suggests ways to create a beautiful home regardless of a woman's budget and Fiat which honors the Blessed Virgin Mary as the model woman Soul Garden aims to strengthen the heart of the mother thereby strengthening the heart of the Church and of society itself

Sonas: Celtic Thoughts on Happiness Catherine Conlon (Editor), 2012-07-30 Whether revealed as something to be glimpsed grasped sought after or savoured here a host of Irish people express what happiness means to them in diverse and often deeply personal ways Not all are well known but each one has done something fulfilling and lasting in their lives The pieces in Sonas Celtic Thoughts on Happiness reflect the philosophies motivations and spiritual paths that can help us to keep an optimistic eye to the future even in troubled times A book to bring a smile to your face Contributors include Bertie Ahern Derval O'Rourke Michael Flatley Peter McVerry Patricia Casey Alice Taylor Vincent Browne Fintan O'Toole Patricia Scanlan Sebastian Barry Seamus Heaney Francis Brennan David Norris John O'Shea Sr Stanislaus

Moral Authority in Seamus Heaney and Geoffrey Hill Bridget Vincent, 2022-02-17 How do poems communicate moral ideas Can they express concepts in ways that are unique and impossible to replicate in other forms of writing This book explores these questions by turning to two of the late twentieth century's most important poets Seamus Heaney and Geoffrey Hill Their work shows that a poem can act as an example of a moral concept rather than simply a description or discussion of it Exploring these two poets via their shared preoccupation with poetry's moral exemplarity opens up new perspectives on their work The concept of exemplarity is shown to play an important role in these poets' most significant preoccupations from moral complicity to the nature of lyric speech to literary influence to memorialisation responsibility and aesthetic autonomy Through this new analysis of poetry critical prose drama and archival materials this book offers a major new study of ethics in the later period of these two writers including recent underexplored posthumous works In turn the book also makes an important intervention in larger debates about literature and morality and about the field of ethical criticism itself this is the first book length study to expand ethical criticism beyond its customary narrative focus The ethical criticism of fiction is often an exercise in methodological advocacy urging the use of more literary examples in moral philosophy As this book shows including poetry among these examples introduces new lyric inflected caveats about the use of literature as a form of moral example caveats which remain invisible in narrative centred ethical criticism

Looking for Cornelius Diana Hayes, 2025-06-30 The innate need for family connection and shared cultural traditions is rooted in our biology This sense of belonging is integral to our survival The concept of blood memory where we feel a connection to ancestors and their experiences is a driving force for Deirdre hAodha a teacher of traditional Irish music for disadvantaged inner city children in Montreal She is preparing her star pupil amon O'Connor for a scholarship recital at Cork College University Together they travel from Dublin to County Cork visiting monastic ruin sites and monuments of ancient Celtic culture and share many stories and synchronicities along the way Deirdre is on a quest to uncover the story of her Irish Great Grandfather Cornelius who escaped Ireland in 1847 at the height of An Gorta Mór The Great Hunger and to find out if she has relatives still living in West Cork She has inherited Cornelius's gift of second sight which she reveals through visions intuition and dreams The theme of transformation through fire faith language and music surfaces throughout their journey Through the mists and thin veil between worlds Deirdre connects deeply to the land of her ancestors and regains a sense of family and belonging Tales of the Irish Hedgerows Tony Locke,2017-04-03 Traditional hedgerows are rapidly vanishing from our countryside With their disappearance we lose not only their flora and fauna but also the tales and folklore that have always surrounded them This book records these stories before they disappear from memory With chapters dedicated to specific plants or animals we learn about the folklore of the hedgehog the badger woodmouse thrush wren bumblebee hawthorn foxglove and hazel and many more These are tales of wisdom and magic that help us to gain a greater understanding of the natural world we live in and which encourage us to live in closer harmony with that world This Saint's for You! Thomas J.

Craughwell,2007 Calling all grave diggers astronauts and coin collectors poets vegetarians and pregnant women There are more than 450 patron saints for every type of person place or situation imaginable Reverent but fun This Saint's for You recounts the lives of the saints explaining why each has become associated with certain people places and activities The book also features 350 gorgeous full colour holy cards that depict these heavenly allies in all their glory Ireland's Birds Niall

Mac Coitir,2015-09-28 Birds have been important symbols in our art and culture for thousands of years They have inspired poets and painters and feature in many place names and legends In this book Niall Mac Coitir draws together the mythology legends and folklore of Ireland's birds both wild and domestic The birds are presented in seasonal order based on their migratory habits the cuckoo and summer or on their cultural associations the robin with Christmas He also explores how birds are often powerful symbols of various virtues and qualities such as the goose which is a symbol of watchfulness and bravery This challenges us to look at birds in a different way as dynamic creatures that have influenced our society over the millennia Written with imagination and enthusiasm this mix of natural history mythology and folklore will delight and enlighten all interested in the birds of Ireland Reading the Animal Text in the Landscape of the Damned Les

Mitchell,2019-10-22 Reading the animal text in the landscape of the damned looks at the diverse texts of our everyday world relating to nonhuman animals and examines the meanings we imbibe from them It describes ways in which we can explore such artefacts especially from the perspective of groups and individuals with little or no power This work understands the oppression of nonhuman animals as being part of a spectrum incorporating sexism racism xenophobia economic exploitation and other forms of oppression The enquiry includes physical landscapes the law women's rights history slavery language use economic coercion farming animal experimentation and much more Reading the animal text in the landscape of the damned is an academic work but is accessible theoretically based but robustly practical and it encourages the reader to take this enquiry further for both themselves and for others
