

Dear Student:

It is with great sadness and regret that we must inform you that effective Monday, April 27, Corinthian Colleges, the parent organization for Heald College, Everest College, WyoTech, and Everest College Phoenix, will cease operations and that your campus will be closed. We are in the process of trying to arrange partnerships with other colleges and universities that would enable you to complete your studies.

We will be hosting meetings for you to obtain a copy of your transcript and learn about options for continuing your education. Please see the schedule below for more information, and we encourage you to continue checking www.cci.edu for further information.

We want you to know that we made every effort to find a qualified buyer to purchase our remaining campuses and keep your school open and several had expressed interest in doing so. Unfortunately, largely as a result of recent state and federal regulatory actions, we were unable to complete a sale, and our only option was to close our schools.

Despite this disruption, we encourage you to continue your education so that you can achieve the goals you set for yourself when you began your studies. We know that you have worked very hard and in many cases made significant sacrifices in pursuing your education. We are enormously proud of you, and we hope we have helped you on your road to a better and brighter future. We are disappointed that we could not accompany you for the entire journey. We wish you the very best of luck.

Sincerely,

Jack Massimino
Chairman & CEO Corinthian Colleges
