Immersion Education in the Early Years Tina Hickey,Anne-Marie de Mejía,2017-10-02 Worldwide more parents are opting for immersion pre schooling for their children in order to benefit from its linguistic educational and cultural benefits This immersion can be either bilingual or monolingual aimed at early second language learning or at language maintenance offering minority language children mother tongue support and enrichment This book examines some of the key issues and policy concerns relating to immersion education in the early years The term itself can be difficult in some political contexts as can the differing outcomes noted by studies comparing monolingual programmes and bilingual programmes for minority language children The importance of training in immersion methodology for educators is discussed as is the need to adapt preschool pedagogical practices to the immersion context in order to provide optimal input for young language learners One of the most pressing discussions surrounds differentiated provision ensuring that the varying needs of children with language impairment typical second language learners and mother tongue speakers with significant socioeconomic or linguistic disadvantages are all met Overall the book explores the challenges currently facing the sector particularly with regard to training and professional development for practitioners and the provision of appropriate materials in less widely used languages Given the documented benefit of high quality immersion pre schooling this book fulfils an urgent need to increase the recognition of the sector This book was published as a special issue of International Journal of Bilingual Education and Bilingualism Teaching English in a Spanish Setting Hang Ferrer Mora,2001 What is Chaparral, Anyway? Stephanie Bryan Lundy,1990
