Stories From An Eaten Mind Angus Milian, 2020-12-02 Life is a scary thing we go through it with very little of an idea on what we should do Sometimes we'll find our mind is out to get us other times we'll be faced with situations outside of any rational explanation and every so often we just have to sit through unsettling times of boredom and have to make out the beauty which lurks in the dullness The stories in this book are reflections of these ideas and more a journey within the depths of loneliness the relentless horrors and confusion which hide within the dark corners of our world and of our fragile mind

Mary Marston George MacDonald, 2019-12-05 In Mary Marston George MacDonald weaves a poignant narrative that combines elements of Victorian realism and romantic idealism The novel follows the life of Mary a strong willed protagonist who navigates the challenges of love faith and self discovery against the backdrop of societal expectations MacDonald's lyrical prose rich in allegorical significance delves into themes of kindness sacrifice and the quest for personal integrity reflecting the author's deep preoccupation with moral and spiritual growth The text is both a gripping tale of personal turmoil and an exploration of the values central to MacDonald's Christian ethos making it a significant work within the Victorian literary landscape George MacDonald 1824-1905 was a Scottish author poet and pioneer of the fairy tale genre profoundly influencing notable writers such as C S Lewis and J R R Tolkien His experiences in the Scottish Highlands combined with his theological pursuits shaped his literary voice MacDonald's commitment to exploring the intersection of morality and creativity in his work led him to craft narratives such as Mary Marston in which he examines how individual choices resonate within the broader tapestry of human experience I wholeheartedly recommend Mary Marston to readers seeking a profound exploration of the human spirit Its rich character development moral undertones and elegant prose will
