

"Anyone who has ever made a resolution discovers that the strength of their determination fades with time. The important thing is not that your resolve never wavers, but that you don't get down on yourself when it does and throw in the towel"

Daisaku Ikeda

SMART GOAL EXAMPLES

"To start" is more specific than to "get" or to "find". Try and leave no room for uncertainty

"new" job suggests 20% salary increase at the current job would not be suitable. Is this too specific? Only the goal setter will know

A % is measurable

To start a new job with 20% more annual salary within the next 6 months

"within the next 6 months" is a time frame.

1. Is a "new" job relevant? What about the current job? Is this limiting?
2. Is the 6 next months relevant timing? i.e. are there other important things happening?

1. Is 20% a good balance of attainable but challenging?
2. Is 6 months a difficult but do-able target?
