Refugees in Europe, 1919-1959 Matthew Frank, Jessica Reinisch, 2017-09-21 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Refugees in Europe 1919 1959 offers a new history of Europe's mid 20th century as seen through its recurrent refugee crises By bringing together in one volume recent research on a range of different contexts of groups of refugees and refugee policy it sheds light on the common assumptions that underpinned the history of refugees throughout the period under review The essays foreground the period between the end of the First World War which inaugurated a series of new international structures to deal with displaced populations and the late 1950s when Europe's home grown refugee problems had supposedly been solved and attention shifted from the identification of an exclusively European refugee problem to a global one Borrowing from E H Carr's The Twenty Years Crisis first published in 1939 the editors of this volume test the idea that the two post war eras could be represented as a single crisis of a European dominated international order of nation states in the face of successive refugee crises which were both the direct consequence of that system and a challenge to it Each of the chapters reflects on the utility and limitations of this notion of a forty years crisis for understanding the development of specific national and international responses to refugees in the mid 20th century Contributors to the volume also provide alternative readings of the history of an international refugee regime in which the non European and colonial world are assigned a central role in the narrative

The Importance of Emigration for the Solution of Population Problems in Western Europe Hilde

Wander,2013-11-11 This first publication of the Research Group for European Migration Problems is devoted to the importance of migration in Western Europe Small wonder that especially German social scientists living in a country invaded by millions and millions of refugees and expellees from Central and Eastern Europe are paying so much attention to the solution of regional and national overpopulation It is doubtful whether we can speak of European overpopulation in general Dr Hilde Wander's investigations make it clear that from a European point of view short distance migration may solve many problems for which up to now overseas emigration to Canada Australia etc seemed to be the only remedy Those talking about European integration there still is much that real action should keep in more discussion on this topic mind that the only way out of the present system of frustrations consists in economic and social freedom i.e. a free flow of goods capital and migrating people The Research Group for European Migration Problems is an international committee promoting the study of one of the crucial social problems rather neglected so far a more effective distribution and spreading of the European population
