Effects and Implications of Pragmatic Competence for Enhancing Efl University Students Written Performance Barham Sattar Abdulrahman, 2012-12-11 The book Effects and Implications of Pragmatic Competence for Enhancing EFL University Students Written Performance highlights the effects and implications of the Kurd EFL students lack of pragmatic competence on their written performance It includes with the written performance of the students at the recognition level and the production level and relies on the results achieved from its instruments the students test the students questionnaire and the lecturers questionnaire Depending on the results obtained from the tools the study tries to identify and find out the sources of errors in the written performance of the Kurd EFL university students The book hypothesizes that the inadequacy of the students written performance could be attributed to the curricula and or the students dependence on the grammatical aspects of the foreign language neglecting the pragmatic and the socio cultural dimensions This gives turn to state that the students written performance is better at the recognition level than the production due to the negative interference of their mother tongue The book concludes that Kurd EFL learners at the university level face serious difficulties when writing in English The inappropriateness of their written performance can be attributed to the negative effects of their first language lack of contact with English native speakers and culture as well as the limited opportunities to have been in English speaking communities Therefore for enhancing EFL university students written performance it is recommended that they should be introduced to the English culture through adding pragmatics and English Culture as two separate subject matters to the curricula and to arrange summer courses for the students in English speaking countries UK and US in particular Oswaal
