symposium specifically addresses information security issues that relate to people. It concerns the methods that inform and guide users' understanding of security and the technologies that can benefit and support them in achieving protection. This book represents the proceedings from the 2016 event which was held in Frankfurt, Germany. A total of 27 reviewed papers are included, spanning a range of topics including the communication of risks to end users, user-centred security in system development, and technology impacts upon personal privacy. All of the papers were subject to double-blind peer review, with each being reviewed by at least two members of the international programme committee.

Achieving Nelson Mandela University? Sibongile Muthwa, Denver A. Webb, 2024-08-20. South Africa's higher education sector is rooted in the country's divided past. A significant State-driven restructuring from around 1997 to 2005 resulted in what is largely the current configuration of public universities. But just over two decades later, for a variety of reasons, the higher education sector in South Africa appears beset with numerous challenges. Nelson Mandela University is one of the public universities that emerged from the restructuring process. The university is in an ongoing state of evolution, becoming what it developed out of the amalgamation of the University of Port Elizabeth, Port Elizabeth Technikon, and incorporation of the Port Elizabeth campus of Vista University as Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in 2005. In 2017, it was renamed Nelson Mandela University after the world-renowned statesman rather than the metropolitan area in which the university is primarily located. The renaming was conceptualised as more than a marketing opportunity to rebrand the university but as an opportunity to reorientate the university to reposition Nelson Mandela University as an engaged and socially embedded university in the service of society, striving to be the academic expression of the values and ethos of its iconic namesake. Endeavouring to be something greater and different from the norm, it imbues its strategy, public statements, and practices. The determination to achieve Mandela University serves or is intended to serve as both an organising principle and a lodestar. A cross-section of writers from different backgrounds situates Nelson Mandela University within the contemporary historical moment from which it emerged and examines its subsequent evolution. While Nelson Mandela University has performed the usual work expected of any university, it has also sought to turn the university outwards to achieve a higher purpose, framing itself as a values-based university on a journey to become something else. In Achieving Nelson Mandela University, the university attempts to give an account of itself. The book is an intellectual and scholarly reflection on where the university has come from and where it is seeking to go.

Universities, Employability and Human Development Melanie

Walker, Samuel Fongwa, 2017-01-20 The book makes a significant contribution to critical higher education studies specifically to graduate employability research and to capabilities and education research The book moves beyond the simplistic conception of alleged gaps in graduate skills and mismatches between employers and universities and instead provides an innovative multi dimensional and intersectional human capabilities conceptualisation of graduate employability The book challenges an individualised notion of employability instead locating employability issues in social and economic conditions and argues that employability choices cannot be divorced from inequality Qualitative and quantitative data from multiple case study universities in South Africa are used to explore the perceptions and experiences of diverse students lecturers support officers and employers regarding what each university is doing or should be doing to enhance graduate economic opportunities and contribute to inclusive development The book will be highly relevant to students scholars and researchers in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in graduate employability Nanotechnology in Catalysis Bert Sels, Marcel Van de Voorde, 2017-06-20 Reflecting the R D efforts in the field that have resulted in a plethora of novel applications over the past decade this handbook gives a comprehensive overview of the tangible benefits of nanotechnology in catalysis By bridging fundamental research and industrial development it provides a unique perspective on this scientifically and economically important field While the first three parts are devoted to preparation and characterization of nanocatalysts the final three provide in depth insights into their applications in the fine chemicals industry the energy industry and for environmental protection with expert authors reporting on real life applications that are on the brink of commercialization Timely reading for catalytic chemists materials scientists chemists in industry and process engineers Financial Inclusion and Digital Transformation Regulatory Practices in Selected SADC Countries

Howard Chitimira, Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa, 2023-03-28 This book investigates the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion and provides a comparative analysis of the regulation promotion and enforcement of the relevant laws in the SADC in particular South Africa Namibia Botswana and Zimbabwe as well as the challenges of financial inclusion In turn it evaluates financial inclusion in the context of specific challenges faced by unbanked and underbanked customers who are easy targets for cyber criminals because they tend to have lower levels of digital literacy The book presents novel discussions that identify the challenges and flaws associated with the enforcement of financial inclusion laws and related measures intended to promote financial inclusion in the SADC region This is primarily done in order to reveal the current strengths and weaknesses of financial inclusion laws in relation to certain aspects of the companies securities and financial markets in the region For example there is no common financial inclusion instrument law that is effectively and uniformly applied throughout the SADC This has impeded the enforcement authorities efforts to effectively combat financial exclusion across the region The book is likely the most comprehensive study to date on the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the SADC region and fills a major gap in SADC and African legal jurisprudence As such it offers a valuable asset for policymakers attorneys bankers securities share holders and other market participants who deal with financial inclusion as well as undergraduate and graduate students interested in the topic Social Innovation in Higher Education Carmen Păunescu, Katri-Liis Lepik, Nicholas Spencer, 2022-01-01 This open access book offers unique and novel views on the social innovation landscape tools practices pedagogies and research in the context of higher education International multi disciplinary academics and industry leaders present new developments research evidence and practice expertise on social innovation in higher education institutions HEIs across academic and professional disciplines The book includes a selected set of peer reviewed chapters presenting different perspectives against which relevant actors can identify and analyse social innovation in HEIs The volume demonstrates how HEIs can respond to societal challenges support positive social change and contribute to the development of international public policy discourse It answers the question how does the present higher education system in different countries promote social innovation and create social change and impact In answering this question the book identifies factors driving success as well as obstacles Furthermore it examines how higher education innovation assists societal challenges and investigates the benefits of effective social innovation engagement by HEIs The interdisciplinary approach of the volume makes it a must read for scholars students policy makers and practitioners of economics education business and management political science and sociology interested in a better understanding of social innovation
