Plato's Dialogues of Definition Justin C. Clark, 2022-07-21 In each of Plato's dialogues of definition Euthyphro Laches Meno Charmides Lysis Republic I Hippias Major Socrates motivates philosophical discussion by posing a question of the form What is F-ness Yet these dialogues are notorious for coming up empty Socrates' interlocutors repeatedly fail to deliver satisfactory answers Thus the dialogues of definition are often considered negative empty of any positive philosophical content Justin C. Clark resists the negative reading arguing that the dialogues of definition contain positive Socratic answers In order to see the positive theory however one must recognize what Clark calls the dual function of the What is F-ness question Socrates is not looking for a single type of answer Rather Socrates is looking for two distinct types of answers The What is F-ness question serves as a springboard for two types of investigation conceptual and causal The key to understanding any of the dialogues of definition therefore is to decipher between them Clark offers a way to do just that at once resolving interpretive issues in Socratic philosophy providing systematic interpretations of the negative endings and generating important new readings of the Charmides and Lysis whilst casting further doubt on the authenticity of the Hippias Major
