Tales from Another Mother Runner Dimity McDowell, Sarah Bowen Shea, 2015-03-03 Every mother runner has a tale to tell A story about how she realized fifteen years after being told that she's best being a bookworm that there is an athlete inside her Or the one about how she fifty pounds overweight and depressed finally found the courage and time to lace up her running shoes Or maybe it's about setting a seemingly impossible goal going under two hours in the half marathon and then methodically running that goal down and tearing up across the finish line Or it might be an account of friendship she was new to town was having a hard time making friends was asked to join a group run and now she's got four BRFs best running friends who are her allies her cheerleaders her reality checks Maybe it's just a simple story of the beauty of starting the day off with an endorphin rush Or sadly it could be about how through the guidance of a thoughtful running friend she found the space and rhythm to process being raped and regained her strength and sense of self through every footstep In Mother Runners elite runners Dimity McDowell and Sarah Bowen Shea share not only their own stories of personal triumph on the pavement but also the inspiring stories of many members of the vibrant mother runner community
