

Later Modern Era (LMA):

Atlantic Revolutions:

- The Enlightenment gave inspiration for the American Revolution
- Reasons for the American Revolution include no taxation without representation, desire for self-government, and opposition to recent British policies
- The Declaration of Independence signed in 1776 made the United States separate from British politics
- The U.S constitution ratified 3 branches of government, a bicameral legislature, and president
- The French Revolution was caused by an absolute government and old social regimes
- The three estates include the nobility, the clergy and everyone else
- The French government was led by monarch king Louis XVI and Marie Antionette
- Due to enlightenment ideas, French society no longer accepted the divine right of kings
- Also financial crisis hurt the government due to the recent war with the british
- The meeting of the estates general took place in (1780/1789)
- The meeting ended with the third estate taking the Tennis Court oath and form the National Assembly
- Soon after the National Assembly stormed the Bastille prison and issued the "Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen"
- The declaration turned France into a Constitutional monarchy
- In 1791, the monarchs of France were taken to Paris and held as prisoners
- In 1793, the revolution turned radical with the invention of the guillotine
- Soon the monarchy was overthrown, and France became a Republic led by the committee of Public Safety and political figure Robespierre
- The Reign of terror was a time where anyone believed to doubt the Revolution was executed
- The Haitian Revolution began as a Slave Revolt and was led by Toussaint L' Ouverture, a former slave
- In 1801, the Haitian constitution granted equality and citizenship to all
- The revolution was successful but ended with the murder of L'Ouverture in 1803
- The creoles led many revolts in Latin America during the 1800s

The Last Jeffersonian Ryan S. Walters,2012-02-28 America is in danger of losing the constitutional republic created by the Founding Fathers Since the beginning of the progressive era the federal government has steadily encroached on the rights of the states and the people Yet today we are inundated with politicians of both parties who seek new ideas and innovative ways to make government work rather than solutions for preserving our political heritage To restore our republic we need to look to the past to the political fathers of old who made the nation the best and brightest on earth Grover Cleveland was the last of those fathers As a mayor governor and president Cleveland dealt with many of the same troubles we face today the public character and behavior of our candidates the role of government in the everyday lives of the people the burden of taxation the distribution of wealth government involvement in an economic depression monetary policy and complex foreign affairs By studying

Cleveland's policies and ideals we can relearn those forgotten lessons of ancient times and restore the American republic
