The Ethnically
Diverse City Frank Eckardt,John Eade,2011-01-01 The Intercultural City Giovanna Marconi,Elena Ostanel,2016-03-31

The resulting cultural differences can often create problems and conflict In Europe alone the sheer scale of migration is forcing the issue to the top of the political agenda The Intercultural City brings together scholars from a range of disciplines including urban studies geography planning sociology political science and spatial design to explore both the failings of existing policies to manage diversity and to examine how one might begin to create ways to remove obstacles and enhance the integration of migrants and minorities Combining fresh theoretical insights with studies from cities in Europe North America Asia and Africa The Intercultural City offers a timely and important contribution to the challenge of managing diversity in the city of the twenty first century

A Research Agenda for Sustainable Cities and Communities Kes McCormick,James Evans,Yuliya Voytenko Palgan,Niki Frantzeskaki,2023-08-14 Global in its outlook this Research Agenda systematically reviews and critiques existing research on sustainable cities calling for greater engagement with a diversity of perspectives It interrogates foundational assumptions in the field and offers reframed perspectives on sustainability Chapters also explore diverse approaches actors and domains locating emerging dynamics and new directions for practitioners

Encountering the City Jonathan Darling,Helen F. Wilson,2016-07-15 Encountering the City provides a new and sustained engagement with the concept of encounter Drawing on cutting edge theoretical work classic writings on the city and rich empirical examples this volume demonstrates why encounters are significant to urban studies politically philosophically and analytically Bringing together a range of interests from urban multicultural systems of economic regulation security and suspicion to more than human geographies soundscapes and spiritual experience Encountering the City argues for a more nuanced understanding of how the concept of encounter is used This interdisciplinary collection thus provides an insight into how scholars writing on and in the city mobilise theorise and challenge the concept of encounter through empirical cases taken from Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and South America These cases go beyond conventional accounts of urban conviviality to demonstrate how encounters destabilise rework and produce difference fold together complex temporalities materialise power and transform political relations In doing so the collection retains a critical eye on the forms of regulation containment and inequality that shape the taking place of urban encounter Encountering the City is a valuable resource for students and researchers alike

Rebuilding Sustainable Communities in Iraq Adenrele Awotona,2009-05-27 The scene in Iraq is most troubling and further failure therein especially failure in sustainable reconstruction will compound the tragedy and bring grievous harm to too many in Iraq the United States the Middle East and the Western world Yet the current efforts at reconstruction cannot succeed as we seem to be making many of the same mistakes that were made post invasion Simply put a national occupying power cannot reconstruct a massive societal vacuum by working only top down Reconstruction is not the simple reversal of destruction Sustainability requires serious localized reconstitution of localized community infrastructure Accordingly in order to explore how Iraqi communities could be rebuilt in a manner that promotes social justice economic and political sustainability and the full participation of all stakeholders the Center for Rebuilding Sustainable Communities after Disasters at the University of Massachusetts at Boston USA hosted a four day international conference of Iraqi and international scholars and practitioners in July 2007 This volume collects some of the papers that were presented at the conference Amongst the topics that the contributing authors have explored are the following the role of organizations and institutions in defining strategies for sustainable rebuilding of community rebuilding the Iraqi Oil Industry and successful project strategies in Iraq s Kurdistan region The book concludes with a presentation of a number of international perspectives and their lessons for Iraq These studies spring from Afghanistan the United States of America and Africa Trespassers? Willow Lung-Amam,2017-05-16 Beyond the gilded gates of Google little has been written about the suburban communities of Silicon Valley Over the past several decades the region s booming tech economy spurred rapid population growth increased racial diversity and prompted an influx of immigration especially among highly skilled and educated migrants from China Taiwan and India At the same time the response to these newcomers among long time neighbors and city officials revealed complex attitudes in even the most well heeled and diverse communities Trespassers takes an intimate look at the everyday life and politics inside Silicon Valley against a backdrop of these dramatic demographic shifts At the broadest level it raises questions about the rights of diverse populations to their own piece of the suburban American Dream It follows one community over several decades as it transforms from a sleepy rural town to a global gateway and one of the nation s largest Asian American majority cities There it highlights the passionate efforts of Asian Americans to make Silicon Valley their home by investing in local schools neighborhoods and shopping centers It also provides a textured tale of the tensions that emerge over this suburb s changing environment With vivid storytelling Trespassers uncovers suburbia as an increasingly important place for immigrants and minorities to register their claims for equality and inclusion Sustainable Intercultural Urbanism at the Service of the African City of Tomorrow Esoh

Elamé,2022-06-03 Most African cities are human settlements that lack the systems needed for effective land use planning In fact the disorganization that prevails has become so complex that the concept of urbanism itself has been called into question This book highlights the need to restore urban planning in African cities through sustainable development and interculturality Furthermore it addresses the balance of power between urban planning and sustainable development and explores the historical and postcolonial aspects of urban planning in African cities A case study focusing on the development of sustainable cities and neighborhoods in the M Zab Valley is also included as well as topics such as urban greening climatic threats and the problem of state agro industrial land transactions which compete with sustainable urban planning Sustainable Intercultural Urbanism at the Service of the African City of Tomorrow is a valuable reference for researchers and practitioners interested in urban issues in African cities These cities in particular sub Saharan cities have long been excluded from any discourse on sustainable cities and urban planning this book places the focus on these cities and acknowledges their varied urban realities The intention is to spark a new debate on sustainable urban planning in African cities based on intercultural sustainable urbanism which is key to thinking about and building ecological intercultural compact intelligent and postcolonial cities

Of States and Cities Peter Marcuse, Ronald van Kempen, 2002 The nature and effects of globalization are coming under critical scrutiny across all continents This book focuses on one aspect the globalization of cities It examines the claim that the state is powerless to influence events and that history geography and culture have become irrelevant in the worldwide trend towards a uniform urban model a model which features increased segregation decline of the central city and social polarization The international team of contributors is well placed to put these claims in perspective Drawing on their experiences of cities as diverse as New York and Warsaw Istanbul and Sao Paulo they demonstrate that states and cities have adopted widely varying approaches to the advent of globalization and that its impact has been constrained by each city's history physical layout location environment role in the international economy and demographic composition The diversity of urban development and political response revealed is enormous and provides ample practical examples of what might be done to bring about improvements for the increasing number of people who live in cities
