The Cambridge History of Classical Literature: Volume 1, Greek Literature, Part 4, The Hellenistic Period and the Empire P. E. Easterling,B. M. W. Knox,1989-05-04 The emphasis of this volume is on Greek literature produced in the period between the foundation of Alexandria late in the fourth century B C and the end of the high empire in the third century A D Here we see a shift away from the city states of the Greek mainland to the new centres of culture and power first Alexandria under the Ptolemies and then imperial Rome Greek literature being traditionally cosmopolitan adapted to these changes with remarkable success and through the efficiency of the Hellenistic educational system Greek literary culture became the essential mark of an educated person in the Graeco Roman world Books and Readers in the Early Church

Harry Y. Gamble,1995-01-01 This fascinating and lively book provides the first comprehensive discussion of the production circulation and use of books in early Christianity It explores the extent of literacy in early Christian communities the relation in the early church between oral tradition and written materials the physical form of early Christian books how books were produced transcribed published duplicated and disseminated how Christian libraries were formed who read the books in what circumstances and to what purposes Harry Y Gamble interweaves practical and technological dimensions of the production and use of early Christian books with the social and institutional history of the period Drawing on evidence from papyrology codicology textual criticism and early church history as well as on knowledge about the bibliographical practices that characterized Jewish and Greco Roman culture he offers a new perspective on the role of books in the first five centuries of the early church Paul and First-Century Letter Writing E. Randolph Richards,2004-10-22 Informed by the historical evidence and with a sharp eye for telltale clues in the Apostle Paul s letters E Randolph Richards takes us into his world and places us on the scene with Paul the letter writer offering a glimpse that overthrows our preconceptions and offers a new perspective on how this important portion of Christian Scripture came to be Impagination - Layout and Materiality of

Writing and Publication Ku-ming (Kevin) Chang,Anthony Grafton,Glenn W. Most,2021-01-18 This volume is a comparative study of the practice of impagination across different ages and civilizations By impagination we mean the act of placing and arranging spatially textual and other information onto a material bearer that could be made of a variety of materials papyrus bamboo slips palm leaf parchment paper and the computer screen This volume investigates three levels of impagination what is the page or other unit of the material bearer what is written or printed on it and how is writing or print placed on it It also examines the interrelations of two or all three of these levels Collectively it examines the material and materiality of the page the variety of imprints cultural and historical conventions for impagination interlinguistic encounters the control of editors scribes publishers and readers over the page inheritance borrowing and innovation economics aesthetics and socialities of imprints and impagination and the relationship of impagination to philology This volume supplements studies on mise en page and layout an important subject of codicology first by including non codex writings second by taking a closer look at the page or other unit than at the codex or book and third by its aspiration to adopt a globally comparative approach This volume brings together for comparison vast geographical realms of learning including Europe China Tibet Korea Japan and the Near Eastern and European communities in which the Hebrew Bible was transmitted This comparison is significant for Europe China and India all developed great traditions of learning which came into intensive contact The contributions to this volume are firmly rooted in local cultures and together address global comparative themes that are significant for multiple disciplines such as intellectual and cultural history of knowledge both humanistic and scientific global history literary and media studies aesthetics and studies of material culture among other fields
