

Wilson's 14 Points

What it says	What it means
1. No Secret diplomatic agreements	Countries should not make any treaties or deals with each other in private, without openly informing other nations involved.
2. Allow freedom of the seas in peace and war	All ships, regardless of nationality, should be able to navigate freely on the open ocean without interference from any other nation, both during times of peace and during wartime, except within a country's designated territorial waters.
3. Equality of trade conditions	A principle of President Woodrow Wilson's Fourteen Points that called for the removal of economic barriers to trade between nations
4. Reduce stockpiles of military armaments to lowest point needed for domestic safety	A country that should only keep enough weapons and military equipment to protect itself from internal threats.
5. Adjust colonial claims, giving more weight to views of colonized people	To reconsider and, change the territorial claims and governance of colonial powers by taking into account the opinions, needs, and rights of the people who were colonized.
6. Evacuate and restore Russian territories seized during the war	any Russian land that was taken over by another country during a conflict must be returned to Russia with the occupying forces withdrawing completely from those territories.
7. Restore and protect Belgium's sovereignty	To re-establish Belgium's independence and authority as a nation, ensuring that it has control over its own affairs without external interference.
8. Restore French territory and settle the debate over Alsace-Lorraine	Return the regions of Alsace ad Lorraine to France, which had been taken by Germany during the Franco-Prussian war of 1871.
9. Adjust Italy's boundaries according to the nationalities of populations living there	To change Italy's borders to better reflect the ethnic and national identities of the people residing in various regions.
10. Autonomous development for the peoples of Austria-Hungary	The diverse ethnic groups within the Austro-Hungarian Empire should have the freedom to govern themselves and develop their own cultures and identities.
11. Redraw boundaries of Balkan States	To change the borders of countries in the
