newspaper had an earlier inception as the Madison Express in 1839 when Madison was a territorial town on the frontier and statehood was still nine years away Readers will notice the newspaper s appearance has changed nearly as much as have the methods of gathering the news and producing the paper But readers fascination with and hunger for the news of each day remain strong "The Argus" Law Reports ,1906 Up to the end of 1959 the Argus law reports contained reports of the Supreme court of Victoria Oil, Paint and Drug Reporter and New York Druggists' Price Current ,1918 Vols include the proceedings some summarized some official stenographic reports of the National Wholesale Druggists Association called 18 1882 Western Wholesale Druggists Association and of other similar organizations Interpreting American Military History at Museums and Historic Sites Marc K. Blackburn,2016-04-08 Across the country museums and historic sites welcome visitors into a world long gone but fundamental to America today Military history in particular is etched into our country s culture and the public s imagination The trouble though for museums and historical sites lies in continuing to make it both accessible and relevant to today s audiences Through Interpreting American Military History at Museums and Historic Sites Marc K Blackburn tackles the difficult task of helping those institutions charged with the care of sites collections and stories that relate to our past relatable while still maintaining the dignity and reverence of their rich history Looking at the various components of American military history such as battles and famous figures Blackburn provides alternatives to the traditional museum experience The 21st century is a culmination of the past and it is more important than ever to remember and learn from the triumphs and failures and this guide provides and explains those strategies for making our stories and collections relevant to modern audiences This books acts as a primer for those unfamiliar with academic trends of the last forty years Historiography of American military history like that of other sub fields shifts as new information surfaces or as perspectives change Blackburn modernizes this area through new interpretative methods as well as through case studies of museums and historic sites that have created programs interpretive media outreach strategies and mission goals updated to meet the needs of today s patrons Armed with these strategies historic institutions will have the foundation to provide compelling relevant and engaging experiences for the 21st century audience Mennonites in the World War: Non-Resistance Under Test Jonas Smucker Hartzler,2020-12-08 In Mennonites in the World War Non Resistance Under Test Jonas Smucker Hartzler meticulously examines the profound challenges faced by Mennonite communities amidst the tumult of the First World War Employing a blend of historical narrative and personal reflection Hartzler delves into the theological underpinnings of Mennonite non resistance exploring how this pacifist stance was both tested and reinforced during a period marked by widespread nationalistic fervor The book situates Mennonite experiences within a broader socio political context providing a nuanced understanding of faith and identity in times of crisis Jonas Smucker Hartzler an ordained Mennonite minister and scholar draws upon both personal and communal histories to illuminate the complexities of Mennonite beliefs during wartime His deep rooted connections to the Mennonite faith and ongoing engagement with its doctrines provide a compelling backdrop for this work Hartzler s insights are further enriched by his experiences in a community grappling with loyalty to pacifism while facing external pressures from society This essential read is highly recommended for scholars and general readers alike who seek to understand how faith can be persevered and challenged during tumultuous times Hartzler s poignant narrative not only preserves a critical historical moment but also invites dialogue about the relevance of non resistance in contemporary conflicts     The Bricklayer, Mason and Plasterer ,1919
