Sports Law in Zimbabwe Tinashe Madebwe, Jimcall Pfumorodze, Emma Chitsove, Thabo Fiona Khumalo, 2022-09-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of sports law in Zimbabwe deals with the regulation of sports activity by both public authorities and private sports organizations The growing internationalization of sports inevitably increases the weight of global regulation yet each country maintains its own distinct regime of sports law and its own national and local sports organizations Sports law at a national or organizational level thus gains a growing relevance in comparative law The book describes and discusses both state created rules and autonomous self regulation regarding the variety of economic social commercial cultural and political aspects of sports activities Self regulation manifests itself in the form of by laws and encompasses organizational provisions disciplinary rules and rules of play However the trend towards more professionalism in sports and the growing economic social and cultural relevance of sports have prompted an increasing reliance on legal rules adopted by public authorities This form of regulation appears in a variety of legal areas including criminal law labour law commercial law tax law competition law and tort law and may vary following a particular type or sector of sport It is in this dual and overlapping context that such much publicized aspects as doping sponsoring and media and responsibility for injuries are legally measured This monograph fills a gap in the legal literature by giving academics practitioners sports organizations and policy makers access to sports law at this specific level Lawyers representing parties with interests in Zimbabwe will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative sports law

Kanyenze: Zimbabwe: The Link Between Politics and

, 2023-03-20 In this accessible and authoritative book Godfrey Kanyenze provides a comprehensive and far reaching analysis of the socio economic development in Zimbabwe in light of the expanding authoritarianism and the ongoing destruction of democratic institutions during the four decades after independence Kanyenze describes the various phases of the socio economic development starting with 1980 when the people of Zimbabwe saw their hard won independence and new democracy as a promise for a

Economic and Monetary Sovereignty in 21st Century Africa Maha Ben Gadha, Fadhel Kaboub, Kai Koddenbrock, Ines Mahmoud, Ndongo Samba Sylla, 2021-12-20 Over forty years after the formal end of colonialism suffocating ties to Western financial systems continue to prevent African countries from achieving any meaningful monetary sovereignty Economic and Monetary Sovereignty in 21st Century Africa

traces the recent history of African monetary and financial dependencies looking at the ways African nations are resisting colonial legacies Using a comparative multi disciplinary approach this book uncovers what went wrong after the Pan African approaches that defined the early stages of independence and how most African economies fell into the firm grip of the IMF World Bank and the EU s strict neoliberal policies This collection is the first to offer a wide ranging comparative and historical look at how African societies have attempted to increase their policy influence and move beyond neoliberal orthodoxy and US dollar dependency Economic and Monetary Sovereignty in 21st Century Africa is essential reading for anyone interested in the African quest for self determination in a turbulent world of recurring economic and financial crisis

Financial Inclusion Regulatory Practices in SADC Howard Chitimira,Tapiwa Warikandwa,2023-05-25 Against a background of calls to prioritise the improvement of financial inclusion in Africa this book provides an analysis of current financial inclusion measures in Southern Africa Evaluating the existing strengths and weaknesses of financial inclusion in Africa it identifies opportunities to improve inclusive financial services and aid poverty reduction in the region With a focus on South Africa Namibia Botswana and Zimbabwe as case studies for assessing current financial inclusion in the context of particular challenges faced by unbanked and underbanked customers who are easy targets for cybercriminals due to low levels of digital literacy it looks into the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in Southern Africa The book explores financial inclusion in the context of digital transformation in the 21st century examining the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the context of digital transformation as well as the challenges related to financial inclusion Suggesting improvements to aspects of company law securities and financial markets in the Southern African Development Community region the book offers a comprehensive study on the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the Southern African Development Community region It will be essential reading for students and academics researching financial inclusion international economic law and development

Competition Law and Economic Regulation in Southern Africa Imraan Valodia,Jonathan Klaaren,Simon Roberts,2017-07-04 Shaping markets through competition and economic regulation is at the heart of addressing the development challenges facing countries in southern Africa The contributors to Competition Law and Economic Regulation Addressing Market Power in southern Africa critically assess the efficacy of the competition and economic regulation frameworks including the impact of a number of the regional competition authorities in a range of sectors throughout southern Africa Featuring academics as well as practitioners in the field the book addresses issues common to southern African countries where markets are small and concentrated with particularly high barriers to entry and where the resources to enforce legislation against anti competitive conduct are limited What is needed the contributors argue is an understanding of competition and regional integration as part of an inclusive growth agenda for Africa By examining competition and regulation in a single framework and viewing this within the southern African experience this volume adds new perspectives to the global competition literature It is an essential reference tool and will be of great interest to policymakers and regulators as well as the rapidly growing ecosystem of legal practitioners and economists engaged in the field

SDGs in Africa and the Middle East Region Ismaila Rimi Abubakar, Izael da Silva, Rudi Pretorius, Khaled Tarabieh, 2024-09-01 Africa is one of the most vulnerable regions and one where the implementation of the SDGs is particularly urgent Underinvestments in natural conservation are increasing the vulnerability of people across many African countries whose well being is endangered by deteriorating socio economic and environmental conditions This volume provides a contribution towards showcasing how natural resources may be more efficiently used and investments may be mobilised to augment the limited public sector funds available to achieve the SDGs This book is part of the 100 papers to accelerate the implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals initiative Financial Inclusion and Digital Transformation Regulatory Practices in Selected SADC Countries Howard Chitimira,Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa,2023-03-28 This book investigates the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion and provides a comparative analysis of the regulation promotion and enforcement of the relevant laws in the SADC in particular South Africa Namibia Botswana and Zimbabwe as well as the challenges of financial inclusion In turn it evaluates financial inclusion in the context of specific challenges faced by unbanked and underbanked customers who are easy targets for cyber criminals because they tend to have lower levels of digital literacy The book presents novel discussions that identify the challenges and flaws associated with the enforcement of financial inclusion laws and related measures intended to promote financial inclusion in the SADC region This is primarily done in order to reveal the current strengths and weaknesses of financial inclusion laws in relation to certain aspects of the companies securities and financial markets in the region For example there is no common financial inclusion instrument law that is effectively and uniformly applied throughout the SADC This has impeded the enforcement authorities efforts to effectively combat financial exclusion across the region The book is likely the most comprehensive study to date on the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the SADC region and fills a major gap in SADC and African legal jurisprudence As such it offers a valuable asset for policymakers attorneys bankers securities share holders and other market participants who deal with financial inclusion as well as undergraduate and graduate students interested in the topic Grid-locked African Economic Sovereignty Victor Warikandwa,Artwell Nhemachena,2019-02-06 The emergent so called Fourth Industrial Revolution is regarded by some as a panacea for bringing about development to Africans This book dismisses this flawed reasoning Surfacing how investors are actually looting and plundering Africa how the industrial internet of things the gig economies digital economies and cryptocurrencies breach African political and economic sovereignty the book pioneers what can be called anticipatory economics which anticipate the future of economies It is argued that the future of Africans does not necessarily require degrowth postgrowth postdevelopment postcapitalism or sharing solidarity economies it requires attention to age old questions about African ownership and control of their resources Investors have to invest in ensuring that Africans own and control their resources Further it is pointed out that the historical imperial structural creation of forced labour is increasingly morphing into what we call the structural creation of forced leisure which is no less lethal for Africans Because both the structural creation of forced labour and the structural creation of forced leisure are undergirded by transnational neo imperial plunder theft robbery looting and dispossession of Africans this book goes beyond the simplistic arguments that Euro America developed due to the industrial revolutions Options for Wastewater Management in Harare, Zimbabwe Innocent Nhapi,2014-04-21 The sustainable management of waste water should aim at pollution prevention and reduction first followed by resource recovery and reuse This work shows that substantial water quality improvements could be achieved through a so called 3 Step Strategic Approach Food Safety Standards in International Trade Onsando Osiemo,2016-09-15 Food safety has become a major concern for consumers in the developed world and Europe in particular This has been highlighted by the recent spate of food scares ranging from the BSE mad cow crisis to Chinese melamine contamination of baby formula To ensure food safety throughout Europe stringent food safety standards have been put in place from farm to fork At the same time poor African countries in the COMESA rely on their food exports to the European market to achieve their development goals yet have difficulty meeting the EU food safety standards This book examines the impact of EU food safety standards on food imports from COMESA countries It also critically examines both EU and COMESA food safety standards in light of the WTO SPS Agreement and the jurisprudence of the WTO panels and Appellate Body The book makes ground breaking proposals on how the standards divide between the EU and the COMESA can be bridged and discusses the impact of EU food safety standards on food imports from poor African countries Extractive Industry Indigenisation in Zimbabwe Kennedy Manduna,2025-09-25 This book explains how and why Zimbabwe s extractive industry Indigenisation over promised its benefits yet under delivered upon implementation This book traces the history of uneven development in Zimbabwe from the initial days of colonialism to the present using the extractive industry as the unit of analysis to carve out a granular and empirical analysis of the preponderance of transnational corporate control and ownership in the country Indigenisation of Zimbabwe s extractive industries was intended to address mining inequalities by transferring wealth from rich non Indigenous mining capital to disadvantaged Indigenous citizens and communities This policy however was a response to political economic and social crises posed by the international isolation of Zimbabwe s government following the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme in 2000 2003 An intervention therefore which promised to address inequalities has thus been hampered by corruption co optation and collusion which has led to it not only failing to address uneven development but in actual fact worsening the situation By examining the hidden structures and infrastructures of power capital and minerals and placing extractive industry Indigenisation in capitalism this book makes a crucial scholarly contribution to the renewed and burgeoning debates around the resurgence of resource nationalism in general and the struggle for economic sovereignty in particular This book steers readers more broadly to look for new and diversified ways of empowering Indigenous populations and their communities through mining Indigenisation in ways that do not threaten economic and political stability This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries natural resource management African politics and African development Comoros Customs, Trade Regulations and Procedures Handbook Volume 1 Strategic and Practical Information IBP USA,2013-08 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually Comoros Customs Trade Regulations and Procedures Handbook Netherlands Yearbook of International Law 2017 Fabian Amtenbrink,Denise Prévost,Ramses A.
